U. S. TO CONTINUE ITS SHIP CONTRACTS WITH PACIFIC COAST YARDS

$704,000,000 IS AVAILABLE FOR NEW SHIPS

All Contracts Made With the Coast Yards Will Be Carried Out, and Cancelled Deals May Be Renewed

Labor Situation on the Coast Clarified; Jobs of 100,000 Men Made Permanent by the Action of Congress

That the crisis in which coast shipbuilders found themselves as a result of the Shipping board's decision to cancel orders for government ships has been safely passed, is the declaration made by Harrison S. Robinson of this city to the Washington correspondent of The Tribune and received by special wire today. There is danger neither of further cancellations, says Robinson, nor of labor unemployment, and consequent possible difficulties.

Robinson represented all of the coast shipbuilders as legal counsel at Washington, whether a number of them accompanied, and where he has now been for more than a month. Frequent conferences with Edward N. Hurley and other Shipping board members, as well as with many members of both houses of Congress have been held.

The optimistic predictions he makes are based by Robinson upon the passage by Congress of the Shipping board's request for more funds, and the fact that the Shipping board calls for the continuation of all contracts made with coast shipyards, the total expenditure of $704,000,000. Additional income is expected to be derived by the board from the sale of ships.

The TRIBUNE'S wire transmitting Robinson's optimistic predictions, follows:

PASSAGE OF BILL.

INSURES ACTIVE PROGRAM.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Harrison S. Robinson, counsel for the eighteen steel shipbuilding companies in California, Oregon and Washington, who has been appearing before Congress in the interest of the western shipbuilders, gave out the following statement, following the passage by the House of the Shipping board appropriation bill:

"The passage of the Shipping board appropriation bill by the House of Representatives today is particularly gratifying to the supporters of the shipbuilding industry on the Pacific coast for two reasons:

"First, Congress has formally approved the minimum program of the Shipping board, which calls for the expenditure during the year which commences today, of $704,000,000. This means that there is no danger of any further suspensions or cancellations caused by lack of funds.

"Second, The Shipping board is now in a position to forward with the making of substantial reinstatements of suspended contracts in those cases where, as Chairman Hurley has expressed it, injustices were done by the ordering order of suspension. The matter of these reinstatements has been necessarily held up until the Shipping board could be advised of the funds which would be made available for their use. In his testimony before the House appropriations committee, John H. Rossett, director of operations of the Shipping board, testified that the bill would provide for the Pacific coast early in this year were rather ruthless, and indicated his entire sympathy with the intention to support a reasonable policy of reinstatement.

"Third, Congress has heard with approval statements of the intention of the Shipping board to build additional large ships of from 15,000 to 18,000 tons, providing capacity up to a total cost of $100,000,000, provided funds for the purpose can be obtained from the sale of a number of the smaller vessels. The appropriation bill carries an authorization permitting the Shipping board to contract for new vessels up to a total of $100,000,000. It is certain that many of the contracts for these boats will go in the highly efficient Pacific coast yards, which produced during the period of national emergency more than 50 per cent of all the steel tonnage delivered to the government.

REPORT TO REDUCE APPROPRIATION.

"In its request for a total appropriation of $704,000,000 the Shipping board asked for new money to the extent of $491,000,000, undertaking to raise $213,000,000 from balances of old government contracts from cash receipts during the year realized from the sale of ships. The original action of the House was to cut the new appropriation from $491,000,000 to $213,000,000. The Senate restored the figure to $491,000,000. The final joint action of both houses of Congress is the new figure of $386,000,000 of new money. This figure was adopted because of the belief by some members of Congress that the Shipping board could raise a larger amount from the sale of ships and could use for the purpose of ship construction larger sums from existing funds than the board had itself estimated.

"However, the amount of new money today appropriated by Congress is $386,000,000.

TELEGRAPH MEN ABANDON STRIKE; BLAME BURLESON

CHICAGO, July 2.—S. J. Koenig, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, at noon declared the striking telegraphers of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies will go back to work this afternoon.

"The strike was declared off because we are not strong enough to fight the government, as well as the companies," Koenig said.

Koenig issued a statement in which Postmaster General Burleson was taken to task for "marshaling the government agencies to fight against the workers, and his party must bear the blame."

The strike, which also was declared off by the workers here, it was said this afternoon, was called June 11.

With Burleson aiding the companies in the strike, violation of the law against sending telegrams from city to city by train and through the mails was permitted, the statement read.

"We have been doubly unfortunate in having to deal with Burleson as a government representative," said the statement. "The combined forces are too strong for us. But this fight will continue along legitimate union lines. We are not beaten and we will carry on until our rights are established."

BOTH SIDES CLAIM PHONE STRIKE WON

Officials of Company Declare Backbone of Walkout Is Broken, Service Improving; Operators Tell Another Tale

Employees Say Strikebreakers Are Deserting and Joining Their Ranks; City Council Asked to Take Drastic Step

The situation in the telephone strike remains deadlocked, according to local labor leaders, despite the optimistic statement of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company that the "backbone" has been broken, with Oakland and San Francisco suffering the greatest inconvenience in the service.

A special meeting had been called of members of Local 283, the men's organization of electrical workers in Oakland, for tonight for the purpose of considering a request to power companies to discontinue the service to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph building and urging locals throughout the Northwest to take similar action. But no action of such a development would completely demoralize the service.

40 DESERTIONS DAILY IS CLAIM MADE.

Discussing the situation, M. Prescott of the telephone company, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in San Francisco, offers the following statement:

"There have been an average of forty desertions a day from the ranks of the striking operators since Saturday in San Francisco alone. In Los Angeles 80 per cent of our operators have returned to work. In the Northwest is a fizzle. The conditions in Oakland and San Francisco are the worst from the standpoint of service in the five states of California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Idaho.

"Postmaster-General Burleson said there was nothing to be gained in the present controversy and to deal either collectively or individually. We are dealing individually with a great deal of success.

"The strike was declared off because we are not strong enough to fight the government, as well as the companies," Koenig said.

Koenig issued a statement in which Postmaster General Burleson was taken to task for "marshaling the government agencies to fight against the workers, and his party must bear the blame."

COCKRELL HAD ALIAS, HINTS PROSECUTION

Alleged Agent of Police Chief Used Name of Harry Hearn While at Byron Springs With Nedderman, Says Dist. Atty

When Police Chief J. H. Nedderman and "Harry Hearn" spent an evening together last January at Byron Springs, the same night and toward the countryside in the same automobile, it was really Nedderman and Dave Cockrell, indicted with him for bribery, who were having a vacation, the prosecution sought to prove in Nedderman's trial this morning. Sheriff R. R. Veale of Contra Costa county was introduced as the witness of the fact that they stayed there, but his testimony, on objection of the defense, was thrown out.

The fact that the occurrence was long subsequent to the events cited in the indictment was taken by Peter J. Crosby, counsel for the former chief, as grounds for objection, which the court sustained. The prosecution had depended upon Sheriff Veale to consume the morning session and his sudden encounter with a legal barrier left them without further witnesses in hand. An early recess was therefore taken.

CHINESE WITNESS IS NEXT TO BE CALLED.

Due to a late reopening of the case against Nedderman and Cockrell, Judge James G. Quinn, the ruling out of the sheriff's testimony and the early recess, there was a brief session of the trial this morning, and that session resulted in no progress. It was expected that Gee Sam Kee, alleged "king of the Chinese lotteries" would be the first witness called this afternoon.

Sheriff Veale was sprung as a surprise upon the defense, but its legal objection was equal to the occasion. The defense attorneys argued that Cockrell's possible connection with the case was not to be surmised, but it developed the moment that Byron Springs is in his territory, as mentioned.

STAY IN GERMANY Until Good Faith Shown—Pershing

PARIS, July 2.—(United Press.)—"Our flag is here; our work is here; our honor is here. The world must understand that we will stand by the allies in seeing the peace treaty carried out."

This declaration was made today by General Pershing, in connection with the announcement of plans for returning to America the regular army divisions now in Germany.

The army of occupation today becomes the American force in Germany. It will be decreased gradually until five or six thousand men remain. The second division, according to present plans, will be released in a few weeks. The third division will be released later and finally the first division will be sent home.

NEW DRY LAW IS RESPECTED ALL OVER U.S.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The attorney general's office today closely watched the entire United States for instances of violations of the war-time prohibition law. It was understood arrests would be made in a number of cases where 2.75 per cent beer was being sold to provide court tests on the validity of the law as applied to beer of that strength. This will probably be the only step taken until the United States Supreme court—meeting next October—decides whether 2.75 per cent is intoxicating or unless Congress passes an enforcement act specifically forbidding sale of drinks containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol.

The most flagrant instances of open violation of the law reported to the attorney general's office was in Atlantic City, where saloons were said to be selling "hard liquor" and ignoring the statute.

The department of justice will take steps to see that those saloons are closed, if newspaper accounts of conditions are correct," said Assistant Attorney General Flierison. Reports were also received of some dealers offering whisky for sale in beer and wine bottles. These instances were isolated, however, and for the most part prohibition appeared to be effective.

LOCOMOTIVE TANK CHOKED.
OMAHA, Neb., July 2.—Seventy carloads of boots, secured by bootleggers in the tank of the locomotive almost caused the engine on Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 62, Kansas City to Omaha, to explode today.

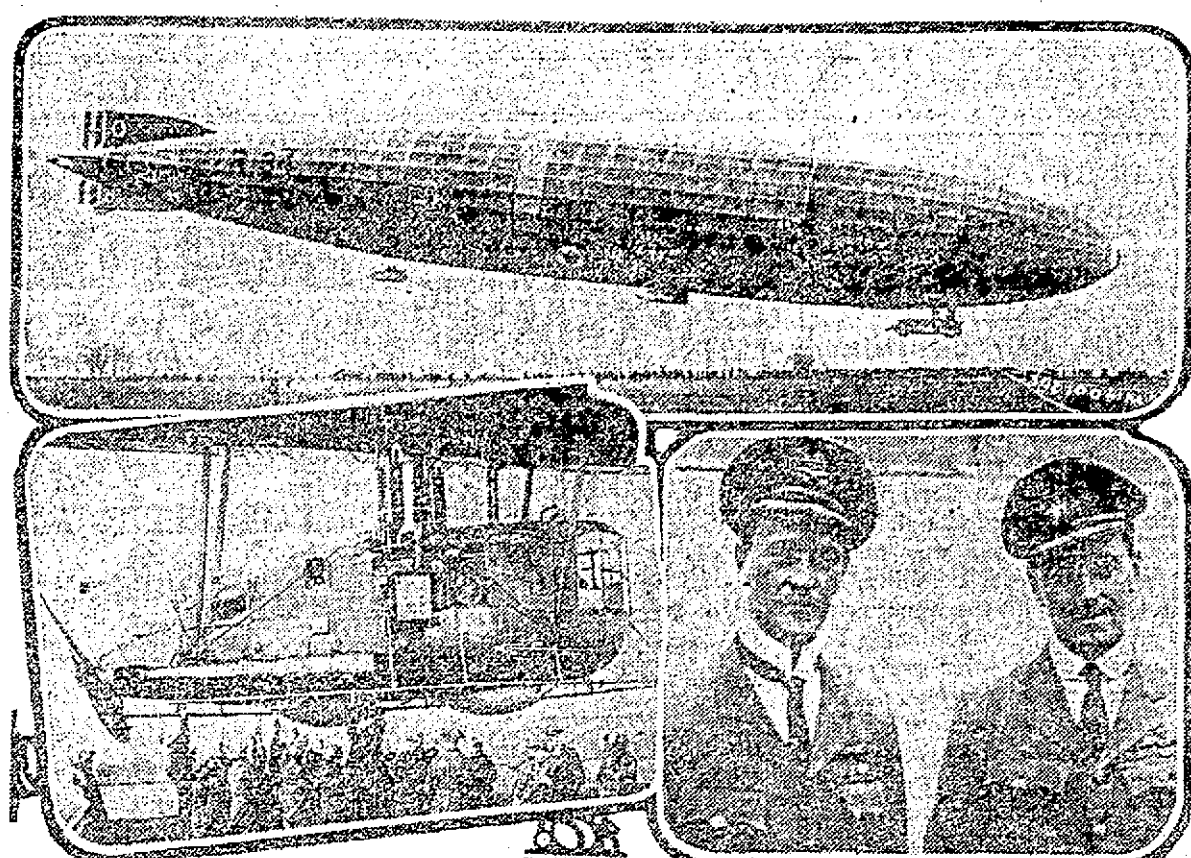

The engineer discovered at Aurora, Neb., that the water in the boiler was exhausted. His fireman immediately dived in the tank and found that the intake pipe had been clogged by "Cedarbrook" labels that had been washed off the bottles.

The liquor was brought to Omaha and confiscated.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Attorney General Palmer today ordered investigation of liquor selling at Atlantic City, and immediate federal prosecutions if conditions are as reported in the newspapers.

FIRST ARREST IN NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, July 2.—The first arrest here for violating the war-time prohibition measure in the United States was reported from Brooklyn. Detectives took into custody Leonard A. Steinberg, 18, made and the greater part of Tuesday had been given over to inspection of the mechanism of the balloon. Every test known to aeronautical science was given to the dirigible to insure the utmost safety. An immense supply of petrol was taken on board as a precaution in case the airship was blown off her course and would have to travel a greater distance than the schedule called for.

In addition to Major Scott and Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne, U. S. N., the following additional officers are included in the crew: Lieutenant Durant, wireless operator; Captain Combs, of the British navy; Captain Greenhead, first officer; Lieutenant Shottor, engineer; Major Cook, navigator; Colonel Hunt and Major Pritchard.

Before the R-34 set out her wireless equipment was overhauled and the original apparatus was removed and a long range plant installed. The new wireless has an 800-mile range.

An electric heating apparatus has been installed also, so that the men could do their own cooking on board.

The officers and crew were equipped with special suits of clothing to keep out the intense cold. The suits were fitted with a parachute attachment.

As the great adventure neared, the crew became visibly excited.

Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne, of the United States navy, making the trip at the invitation of the British navy, emerged from his cabin clad in fur and resembling an Arctic explorer. Pushed and smiling, he said: "I feel great. I would rather fly across than travel in a boat. The elements will be smoother and personal danger does not exist. The weather is almost ideal."

Climbing his room, he turned back and shook the hand of the correspondent.

"Here's luck," were his farewell words.

Commander Lansdowne will be given the honor of steering the balloon to its landing place at Hazelhurst.

Final tests of the R-34 were most satisfactory.

Preparatory to sailing, members of the crew rolled up their extra clothing, each man taking a complete change. All of the officers carried small suitcases.

press is not the principal factor in the situation for the reason that the appropriation was made with the express understanding stated on the floor of the House, that, if the money amounting to $356,000,000 voted today shall prove insufficient, then Congress will make up the deficit year any such deficit so that a total of $704,000,000 will be actually available for the use of the shipping board during the year.

"When the circumstances, to which the Pacific coast yards are obviously entitled, shall have been made, all danger of unemployment during the winter in the shipyards of California, Oregon and Washington will be removed."

LABOR SITUATION ON COAST PROVES FACTOR.

Robinson expressed the belief that because of the present "serious labor situation" on the Pacific coast, it is imperative that by errors be made in handling the shipping program in the west.

"There are approximately 100,000 men employed in the steel shipbuilding plants along the coast, in addition to the 20,000 employed in dependent industries, subsidiary to the building of ships," he said. "If the government shipbuilding program is terminated abruptly, these men will be thrown out of work, and the very dangerous radical element will increase alarmingly."

"We know radical leaders in the west who have been hoping that the shipyards would shut down. They openly declare that unemployed men will become recruits to their camps, where Soviet government and Bolshevism are preached."

As a representative of the spread of radicalism along the Pacific coast, Robinson said that a committee of officials of the American Federation of Labor are going there this month to tell of the necessity of substantial reinstatement, and since the passage of the appropriation bill by the House, they have no doubt that a number of reinstatement bills will be made.

Robinson paints a like roscate picture of coast prospects in a telegram he has sent to Joseph J. Tolan, of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation, telling of the necessity of the bill by Congress. He adds: "John J. Nolan and J. A. Elston have done splendid work for the shipbuilding industry. Nolan led the fight."

These are Congressmen Nolan and Elston of San Francisco and Alameda counties respectively.

The Shipping board has taken over the American rights to manufacture one of the standard European Diesel engines, according to another Washington despatch, and will build the engines on a vast scale. A contract has been let for the construction of the engines in Pennsylvania and within three months the output will be at the rate of one a day, to be increased to two a day by the end of the year.

New Republic Being Formed in Germany

COBLENZ, July 2.—A republic comprising the Rhine provinces of Hesse, Upper Hesse and Nassau is being formed with headquarters at Darmstadt, it was reported here today.

Reports said the new government was under the presidency of Herr Willich, deputy in the reichstag for Hesse-Darmstadt and administrator for the province since the Duke of Tesse fled last December.

The movement intends dispensing with the Prussian administration, although remaining within Germany.

Col. Littlebrandt Is Dead in Alabama

ANNISTON, Ala., July 2.—Col. William C. Littlebrandt, 60th cavalry, commanding officer at Camp McClellan, died suddenly at his home on Sherman highway this morning. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure. Colonel Littlebrandt was stricken three days ago. He was a native of California. He is survived by his second wife and two grown daughters, the latter being Red Cross nurses overseas.

Julius Barnes, New Federal Grain Chief

NEW YORK, July 2.—Julius Barnes today chairman of the United States Grain Corporation following the acceptance of the resignation of Herbert Hoover.

The capital of the corporation was increased from $150,000,000 to $600,000,000 for handling the 1919 wheat crop.

GERMANS WILL RATIFY PEACE TREATY SOON

By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN, Correspondent of the International News Service.

En Route With President Wilson to the United States, On Board the S. S. George Washington July 1 (Night, by wireless to New York).—President Wilson today decided to board a special train for Washington immediately upon his arrival at Hoboken, instead of paying the short visit to New York City. The train will leave for the national capital as soon as the Presidential baggage is stowed on board.

PARIS, July 2.—The Germans expect to ratify the peace treaty the first of next week, according to a note sent to the allies. The note was one acknowledging the allies' stipulation that the blockade will be raised when the treaty is ratified. The Germans also expressed the hope that German war prisoners would be released at the same time.

PARIS, July 2.—The Big Five was scheduled today to appoint the committee which will direct execution of the peace treaty.

This body, which now consists of Secretary Lansing, Foreign Secretary Balfour, Foreign Minister Pichon, Foreign Minister Tittoni and Baron Makino, was also expected to consider the personnel of the permanent reparations committee and the committee on Bulgarian boundaries.

The new Italian delegation is declared to hold a milder attitude on the Fiume question than the former commission, but it is eager to settle the issue at the earliest possible moment.

The Italian desire to have the Adriatic question disposed of in the Austrian treaty, although there is some opposition to this.

Reports from Turkey indicate that the southerly bodies of troops are operating in Asia Minor in opposition to allied occupation. A general uprising is feared when public Turkish peace terms are made public and considerable difficulty is anticipated in enforcing them.

The treaties whereby America and Great Britain are pledged to aid France in event of unprovoked aggression by Germany are so interlocking that failure to ratify one will nullify the other, it was learned today. The treaties contain several articles practically identical. One provides that the treaty is effective as regards Germany carrying out the military terms of the treaty of Paris. This means that America and Great Britain will be equally interested in France in the demolition of the Rhine fortifications and accomplishment of all other military requirements. It was suggested that this situation possibly had a bearing on the minute change in plans, providing for leaving more American troops on the Rhine than was originally intended.

M. Malakoff, former Russian ambassador to Paris, addressed the Big Five this morning with regard to Bessarabia. It was learned from semi-official sources. Malakoff is the first Russian representative to speak officially before the peace delegates. It was pointed out today that this is partly the result of allied recognition of Admiral Kolchak.

AMERICA'S FIRST CAR

A Suggestion—
Slip Around to the Back Door

To the door that leads to the shop and the service station. Watch the mechanics at work, talk to the owners that you see there; get an idea of what's going on; see if there is harmony, a business-like air to the place; if things are running smoothly, if you would feel secure in bringing your car troubles there.

It may take you but ten minutes to buy your car. You may be driving thru that shop door ten years hence. You want to be sure that door leads to the right place. Think it over.

CAFE SINGER JAILED; HIDES HER IDENTITY

Martha Evans, 18-year-old cabaret entertainer, who is accused of shoplifting in one of Oakland's department stores, today told-inspector Alexis J. Sheff-off that the passing of John Barleycorn had marked a new milestone in her career. She will hereafter follow the "straight and narrow," she said.

She was sentenced by Police Judge George Samuels to serve 90 days in the city prison on conviction of the shoplifting charge. The accused girl resists all efforts of authorities to locate her parents.

"I don't want them to know anything of my past," she said. "Give me what I deserve, and I will take it bravely."

Charles K. Lipman, Copper Leader, Dead

NEW YORK, July 2.—Charles K. Lipman, a prominent figure in the copper industry of the United States, died at his home here today. Lipman, who was for many years associated with the Guggenheim mining interests, was born in California in 1867. His elder brother, Fred Lipman, is a banker in San Francisco.

HAS NOTHING TO PROVE HE WAS OVERSEAS

There is something that worries R. DeLario of 629 Hobart avenue. In years to come DeLario won't be able to show his children and grandchildren concrete evidence of his participation in the last big argument "over there."

For last night a mean burglar stole DeLario's German helmet and gas mask. They were the only trophies he brought back from the French front.

RAISE IN RAIL RATES HINTED

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Direct or-General Hines expects to consult with President Wilson on the question of another raise in freight rates soon after the President's return. It was stated authoritatively today. Hines will lay before the President at the same time detailed data on the railroad financial situation.

The country, however, will probably not know until October whether it will have to pay increased transportation charges. By that time, railroad officials said today, they can tell whether the increases in fuel traffic will be enough to offset increased operating costs.

Hines said July 1 requirements of the railroad administration had been met. They totaled $35,000,000, while $100,000,000 was available for meeting them. It was recently reported these debts could not be paid until the President signed the railroad appropriation bill.

TREATY PLEA IS PREPARED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(By wireless to the Associated Press)—The Presidential voyage continues under most favorable conditions, with calm seas and mild sunny weather. Wilson has done some work on his message to Congress, in which he will submit the treaties, protocols and general results achieved at the Paris conference, but on advice of Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his physician, the President is giving considerable time to rest and recuperation, after the strenuous days he has just left behind, and for those through which he soon must pass.

While no precise plans concerning the presentation message have as yet been announced, it seems probable that if the George Washington arrives in New York Monday, as expected, the treaties will be submitted and the message read by Wednesday or Thursday.

GIRL TEACHERS SHIP STOWAWAYS

SAN JOSE, July 2.—Refused passage on the Matson steamer Manoa from Honolulu for lack of room, all their importunities, in vain, Miss A. M. Ryan and Miss Grace Morgan, San Jose school teachers, nevertheless are back at their homes and they came on the Manoa, too.

They stowed themselves away, in a linen closet.

When the ship was clear of Diamond Head, they stole from their hiding place and mingled with the passengers until bedtime when the vessel was a hundred miles out. Then they went to Purser Berger, made a full confession, paid their fare and were given cots in an already crowded state room. They are happy over their adventure, but the steamship company officials say that linen closets will be searched in the future.

DULL DAYS FOR HOSPITAL WHEN DRY LAW COMES

Whether or not it was due to the fact that everyone was sound asleep after the wake to J. Barleycorn and so, out of harm's way, it nevertheless is to be recorded that from 8 o'clock last night to 6 o'clock this morning there was not a case of any character reported at the Emergency hospital, the first time on record. All night long the staff waited, sitting around sleepily, but never a thing happened.

Usually it is a dull night that does not produce ten or more cases, ranging from slight abrasions resulting from a fall or a fight to attempted murder or suicide. Almost every night develops an automobile accident, serious or otherwise. But last night was a peaceful night, and the staff at the hospital had time to rest up from the score of cases of the night before.

And while the Emergency hospital employees were enjoying unbroken rest, the police department force was equally fortunate. There was not an arrest after midnight.

SALOONS OPEN, BUT LIQUIDS ARE KICKLESS

Can camouflage cure thirst? This is what the thirsty in Oakland are forlornly seeking to ascertain today, with the use of psychology and near-beer, or imagination and grape juice, in place of the favored tipple of yore.

Many of Oakland's saloons are open for business as usual—and still not as usual.

The doors swing just as invitingly; the bartenders still wear their white coats in these "deleted" joy emporiums; the glasses and bottles shine on the back-bars—and there's even some on the "kickless" beer. One almost imagines all's right with the world again!

JOYLESS HIGHBALLS.

But alas! It's not "hoorah" in those bottles. The big glass affair that used to contain the choicest of "raw" now is filled with a concoction called "Grape Smash," which is made into "kickless" and joyless highballs. There are fruit juices in the various bars, but they are not the same as the root beer, celery phosphate, mineral waters and near-beer complete the list of "camouflage."

The beer is the only solace. It looks like beer—and it almost tastes like beer! One can at least get a psychological kick out of it. The cider shows promise, too. One can imagine that if that apple juice were kept long enough it might gain authority.

Toppers of olden days are wandering forlornly from bar to bar, trying each concoction. And after they have tried them all they shake their heads and walk sadly and soberly out.

CAMOUFLAGE LIQUIDS.

Strange and remarkable are the drinks in the saloons still open and that have sprung up over night. There are a dozen kinds of grape juice drinks; berry and fruit juices galore; apple cider, in bottle or barrel; celery phosphate, mineral waters and near-beer complete the list of "camouflage."

The beer is the only solace. It looks like beer—and it almost tastes like beer! One can at least get a psychological kick out of it. The cider shows promise, too. One can imagine that if that apple juice were kept long enough it might gain authority.

It's all very home-like and "as-it-was"—until you drink!

BARS, BREWERS RESUME ACTIVITY

The wartime prohibition act is clearly set forth in the following statement made by U. S. Attorney Adams:

"This office will prosecute vigorously any and all violations of the act. I will proceed at once in prosecuting all cases where evidence is obtained of the sale of beverages containing a greater alcoholic content than 2.75 per cent volume or 3.30 per cent weight."

CLOSED BY PROHIBITION.

In the meantime the war-time prohibition measure is beset by a cloud of rumors and federal officials here are still as much at sea as before. United States Attorney Annette Adams says she has received no information as to how to proceed against beer, and Judge Sawelle, in refusing an injunction asked by the Rainier Brewing Company, says that it is still a question of fact whether 2 3/4 per cent beer is intoxicating or not. In the meantime wholesalers and retailers are awaiting the outcome of the test case.

One ray of hope came to the "wets" today in an announcement from Washington that demobilization might be completed by August 1. This would leave nothing in the way, after the war-time act, of the war prohibition act. Officials at Washington said today that after August 1 so few men would be in the army in comparison to the four million who were in service that demobilization could be declared accomplished.

WETS AND DRY LINE UP FOR FINAL CONFLICT.

Wet and dry forces in Congress are lining up for a battle over 2 3/4 per cent beer, an independent bill, providing for a method of enforcing the war-time act and providing for any liquor containing one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol as an intoxicant, is expected to be placed before the judiciary committee of the House Monday and the department of justice has announced that its interpretation is that the half per cent would be the limit. Decisions in Baltimore and here over the "light" beer are in conflict, but it is expected that the Supreme Court may have to rule in the end on this issue. Attorney General Palmer has demanded "early and vigorous prosecution" of violations of the new law and minority factions in Congress are playing a fight to delay enforcement bills.

The first arrests under the new law were made in Kansas City, where two bartenders were taken into custody for selling beer. They are out on $500 bail and will be tried in the federal court there.

POLICE CHIEF 'THREATENED' BY BERKELEY BOYS

BERKELEY, July 2.—Chief of Police August Vollmer today received a "threatening" letter which he has turned over to detectives of the police department. Here is the letter:

"To old man Vollmer:
"Why don't you let us have anything on the fourth? If G. Washington could see us, he would kick you to Jericho. I bet you had lots of fun on the fourth when you were a kid."

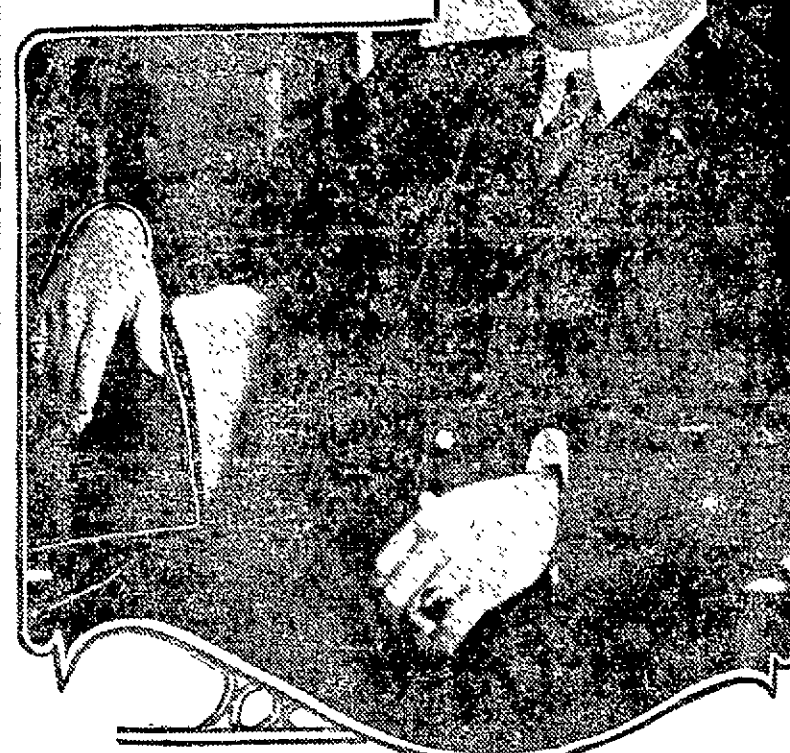

(Signed) "Kids of Berkeley." The "threat" is written in a piece of red paper fashioned in the form of a firecracker. It was left at the police station this morning by two boys who made a hasty exit. Chief Vollmer had formerly announced that there were to be no firecrackers on the Fourth. Whether or not he will be intimidated by this morning's development and lift the ban, he will not say.

NEDDERMAN'S WIFE ATTENDS ALL SESSIONS.

Since the second day of testimony taking Mrs. Nedderman has been a constant attendant at all sessions of the trial. From a seat at the rear of the attorney's enclosure she expects the present trial to continue. Continuation of the Cockrell trial will involve also a continuance of that of Corporal Thomas O'Neill, which has been set for two weeks later.

SEPARATE LEAGUE FIGHT IS DROPPED

WASHINGTON, July 2.—President Wilson's decision to proceed immediately to Washington on his official in New York was taken in official circles this afternoon to mean that he will address Congress next Tuesday when the present recess ends.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—With the beginning today of a week's recess of Congress, it seemed that Senate opponents of the League of Nations would abandon any plan for a formal Senate declaration on the subject before the fight for actual ratification of the treaty began.

Until the recess plan was suggested, it had been the apparent purpose of opposition leaders to press the resolution of Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, to serve notice of unwillingness to accept the league covenant as an inseparable part of the treaty, and of Senator Foll, Republican, New Mexico, to declare a state of peace with Germany.

Senators G. W. Harrison, Dr. E. W. Harris, Mrs. Fred K. Hun, Mrs. T. P. Hogan, Dr. Minora Kibbe, Dr. L. R. Kilgore, Mrs. A. J. Kennedy, Mrs. Anna M. Kilgore, Mrs. Nellie Nelson, Mrs. Addie Mosher, Mrs. E. S. Moffatt, Mrs. Minnie McGaughey, Mrs. A. E. Posey, Mrs. H. W. Whitworth, Mrs. G. A. Rigg, Mrs. E. C. Robinson, Mrs. Geo. NO DANGER OF I.W.W. IN U.S., SAYS RIGDON

BERKELEY, July 2.—America need have little fear of the Bolsheviki or I. W. W. elements taking over the reins of government in the United States, said Ensign T. R. Rigdon, of the Naval Air Service, in an address before the Berkeley Defense Corps in "The Degout" on Alameda way.

"During the attempted revolution in Seattle a short time ago some of the I. W. W. soap box orators in New York attempted to tell sixty sailors they were ready to take over the government of the United States and make it Bolsheviki, and it took 500 of New York's finest policemen to keep these sixty sailors from clearing out every direct action man in New York," said Rigdon.

HAS ARMY RECORD.

Ensign Rigdon spent nearly a year in Europe teaching "stunt" flying to naval aviation students, went on several bombing expeditions into enemy territory, and has many exceedingly interesting and exciting experiences to relate. On one flight while teaching a student to execute a particular Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Advertisement.

JANITORS MAY SHARE RAISE IN SCHOOL MONEY

BERKELEY, July 2.—Janitors in Berkeley's school will share a raise in pay with teachers if a recommendation made to the Berkeley school board by Superintendent H. B. Wilson is carried out. Wilson urged the board yesterday to include an increased wage scale for janitors in the new budget raise in salaries to be dependent upon an increase in funds from the county supervisors.

Appeals from the Principals' Association of the Berkeley School Department and from the faculty of the Hillside School for more pay for janitors were also received. Superintendent Wilson was instructed to arrange a wage scale for future consideration. Janitors in all of the local schools were re-appointed for the coming year.

Early hazardous "stunt" the machine became unmanageable and they fell 2000 feet into the ocean. While the ship was being raised by a broken cable, his companion was crippled for life. When asked how it felt to fall 2000 feet Rigdon said: "You don't feel anything until you strike the earth or ocean, as the case may be. It takes about four seconds. You try all the emergency stunts you can think of in four seconds and suddenly mother earth hits you. If it's your day your comrades get to attend your funeral. If not, you spend some time in the hospital and then you're all over again. The action becomes great fun. They know the same gets them sooner or later, so they learn to figure they will either get it this trip or they won't, so they stop worrying about it. There is no use worrying about something you can't help."

LAW TO BE ENFORCED.

Replying to resolutions recently adopted by the Berkeley Defense Corps protesting against the distribution of seditious I. W. W. and Bolsheviki literature in Berkeley, the following letter was received from the city clerk by Secretary Vincent R. McElaine:

"Again referring to your communication of May 27 I now hand you herewith copy of the report of the chief of police, to whom your resolution on the distribution of seditious literature was referred by the council, with instructions to see that the city ordinance governing that matter is enforced."

The letter of Chief of Police August Vollmer is as follows:

"Agreeable to the directions of the city council the officers of this department have been instructed to enforce the provisions of ordinance No. 612 N. S. Violations of this ordinance will be promptly prosecuted."

4 DRUNKS FOUND IN DRY ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, July 2.—Despite the dryness of the town and the special fact that yesterday was election day, the police harvested a crop of four drunks yesterday. One or two appeared to be holdovers from the night before and the other seemed to have been freshly-acquired sozzles, probably collected from stored stocks.

Perhaps half the saloons of the town are still open, dispensing soft drinks and waiting to see which way the cat jumps. No matter what the final outcome of liquor and wine questions, or a possible reopening for the hard stuff, as well, several Alameda saloon men have quit permanently. It is doubtful if their places will be filled, even if the selling is restored in considerable degree.

The city council is generally figured as strongly inclined to follow the spirit and intent of the dry regulations and the council will hardly look with favor on applications which might be made by new men to get into the business on a chancing chance. The "grand 600 days" prior to yesterday may return again.

When asked if the police would investigate sources of supply in case intoxicated men were arrested after a few days, Lieutenant of Police George Daly said he thought not, as liquor could be given away. On the other hand Daly added that suspicious "jags" might come in after his investigation as to the sources of supply.

The first dry day apparently brought to light all of the boot-legging schemes the wide world knows in the last century. Like smoke without fire there was much booze talk but no booze.

BERKELEY WILL OPEN NEW SCHOOL

BERKELEY, July 2.—Following an appeal from residents of the Cragmont section that school facilities be given them in their immediate locality, the Berkeley board of education yesterday authorized Superintendent of Schools J. B. Wilson to take steps toward opening classrooms in the hill region.

An offer of the Cragmont Land Co. for a free use of land and local road 200 feet west of Enclid was accepted by the board and temporary classrooms will be erected there for occupancy at the beginning of the new school year. A frontage of 150 feet has been loaned to the school authorities by the land company, with all taxes and other expenses on the property to be borne by the realty corporation.

According to data submitted to the board by Mrs. Oscar Runnels as representative of the Cragmont residents at least 60 pupils now forced to attend private school or walk a long distance to the Oxford school will attend the new school.

While not a part of Berkeley, Cragmont is included in the college city's school district and pays for the upkeep of educational facilities. Establishment of the school will be along the same plan of the Thousand Oaks school, which was opened last year by the board upon the idea of residents of that locality. The proposed new Cragmont school will be a temporary structure at present with plans to be made later for a permanent site and building.

BERKELEY BOARD MEMBER QUILTS

BERKELEY, July 2.—The resignation of G. L. Schneider, prominent business man, from the advisory committee acting with the board of education in the expenditure of school bond funds was received yesterday by the latter body. Press of other duties was the reason given by Schneider. Schneider was asked to reconsider his action and to continue his service with the board, his resignation being laid over until the next meeting.

One resignation, two leaves of absence and two appointments in the faculty of the school department were acted upon yesterday by the board. Mrs. Ellnor H. Jones was given an extension of her leave of absence as was also Miss Hallie Porter of the Oxford school. The resignations of Miss Nellie Bley, Oxford school, and Miss J. March, physical education department at the high school, were accepted, the latter because of the death of her father's removal to the east.

Miss Helen McKeever was named to the place of Mrs. Lida Peck at the Edison school after serving as a substitute teacher. Miss Mary Hereth will succeed Miss Grace Holmes as teacher of domestic science at the Burbank school. Miss Hereth has been teaching in the San Joaquin valley and a vacancy caused by the marriage of Miss Holmes.

Resolutions from the Thousand Oaks School Mothers' club asking for a kindergarten were received by the board yesterday from Mrs. Harold Lake, president. The matter was referred to the superintendent with power to establish the desired kindergarten.

Oakland Chauffeur Nabbed at Berkeley

BERKELEY, July 2.—William Norton, chauffeur for an Oakland taxi cab, is under arrest here today for driving an automobile without an operator's license as a result of an accident last evening in which John Akiya, 2113 Haste street, was seriously injured.

Norton was driving a machine along Grove street at Russell when he collided with a motorcycle driven by Akiya. Akiya was taken to Roosevelt Hospital with bruises and possible internal injuries. Norton resides at 505 Isabella street, Oakland.

Alameda Teachers Aided in Pay Plea

ALAMEDA, July 2.—The Alameda teachers are continuing through appointed committee workers their efforts to secure a raise of salary. Letters to city council and the supervisors are being signed by business men, heads of big industries and other property owners and taxpayers. It is expected that this city will be practically a unit in backing the efforts of the teachers for the raise of pay.

ATTAINS OFFICE BY OWN VOTE

BERKELEY, July 2.—In order that the business of the Berkeley board of education might not be held up Dr. Roy L. Woolsey was yesterday forced to cast a vote for himself for president of the official body.

Election of a president came before the board yesterday as the first act of the new fiscal year. But Dr. Woolsey, Mrs. Ida M. Blochman and Mrs. Carrie Gibbs were present at the meeting.

"Move that Dr. Woolsey be re-elected president," said Mrs. Gibbs. "Second the motion," came from Mrs. Blochman.

Miss Nellie Crowl, secretary, called the roll with but two responses from the women members.

"We must have a third vote," directed the secretary.

"Aye," said Dr. Woolsey as he elected himself to office.

To Have Perfect Skin Throughout the Summer

This is the season when she who would have a lily-white complexion should turn her thoughts to mercerized wax, the firm friend of the summer girl. Nothing so effectively overcomes the scaling effects of sun, wind, dust and dirt. The wax literally absorbs the scorched, discolored, either or coarsened skin, bringing forth a brand new skin, clear, soft and girlishly beautiful. It also dissolves the pores, removing blackheads and increasing the skin's breathing capacity.

An ounce of mercerized wax, obtainable at any drug store, applied nightly like cold cream, and washed off mornings with granular soap, even the worst complexion. There is nothing better for the removal of tan, freckles or blotches.—Advertisement.

British-American Veterans to Meet

BERKELEY, July 2.—A meeting of the newly organized British-American Great War Veterans has been called for 8 o'clock tonight in room 233 of the Mills building, San Francisco. All former soldiers and sailors serving under the British flag have been urged to join the organization. Almost 100 members are now enrolled by the parent organization in Berkeley. Brady Foote, former Canadian fighter, has been elected president of the organization in the place of H. A. Childs, resigned.

VICTIM OF BILL RAISER

BERKELEY, July 2.—Grant Wallace, 1115 Milvia street, is missing as the result of accepting a one-dollar bill which had been cleverly raised to one of a ten-dollar denomination. Wallace accepted the bill from a stranger while endeavoring to make change to pay for gasoline at an oil station at Bancroft way and Shattuck avenue.

GRASS FIRES DECREASE

ALAMEDA, July 2.—Wholesale burning of dry grass and a general cleaning of gutters, sidewalk parking spaces and vacant lots, is reducing the large number of grass fires which broke out records in June. The cleaning campaign is still on and the daily grass fire record is expected to fall rapidly immediately after the Fourth.

FIRE DANGER POINTED OUT BY WHITEHEAD

A warning to the general public of Oakland to keep down fires to a minimum during the critical period up to July 4, supplemented with a list of preventive instructions, was today issued by Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead.

From all appearances the danger of great fire losses in Oakland was never so imminent as it is at the present. Twenty-eight alarms that were answered by the city departments yesterday, forms one of the most ominous signs of this conclusion.

Carelessness must be guarded against for the safety of the community, as it is the primary cause of all conflagrations at this season, says Chief Whitehead. He pointed out the necessity of the cooperation of the public.

"We believe we have an efficient department and are in a position to handle the present situation, but we cannot do the impossible," said the fire chief. "Therefore, we must have the full and hearty cooperation of the public."

Grass fires are the firemen's greatest worry. They are the source of some of the heaviest property losses. For this reason it is urged upon property owners to keep grass on their property from becoming dry and in an inflammable state. All dry grass should be cut and buildings should be hoed up.

Garden hoses should be connected at all times, as in many cases the fire departments are called out to extinguish fires that might develop later. Chief Whitehead urges all property owners to watch shingle roofs by only a small spark and sometimes cause a widespread conflagration. Whenever possible the shingle roofs should be moistened with water to keep the shingles from becoming inflammable.

NO HEAVY LOSSES.
Ample provision for combatting all fire eventualities have been made by the fire department chief, Chief Whitehead takes pride in his department for its commendable work in preventing any great fire losses for the past several weeks.

Every available piece of fire apparatus has been turned out and put into service. In addition to the complete fire equipment of this city, the chief has requisitioned three trucks from the street department for special duty until after the Fourth.

With the ban on fireworks lifted slightly, permitting harmless firecrackers and minor displays of pyrotechnics, fire hazards have increased. This is due not so much to the amended fireworks ordinance, but to the apparent carelessness on the part of small boys and in some instances, to the carelessness of adults.

HOW PATIENTS CAN HELP.
"Fireworks can be used sensibly, without endangering the community," declares Chief Whitehead. "Parents should instruct their children to avoid throwing firecrackers on buildings or in any other place where they are likely to start a fire."

A fire of any serious nature, developing from this source, lays the perpetrator open to criminal prosecution, warns the fire chief.

In brief, all you can do to keep up the 100 per cent efficiency of Oakland's fire department.

PRESIDIO SHOTS WILL GO EAST

A rifle team of twelve members and two alternates chosen from the cadets, and one team captain, one coach and one quartermaster from the army officers will be selected to represent the Presidio reserve officers' training corps camp at the national rifle matches at Camp Perry, N. J., in August. The team will receive transportation and subsistence to and from the Presidio and will be fed and housed at government expense while there. Selection of the team will be made on a competitive basis, the cadets making the best scores in record range practice winning the honor of representing their camp in the great national competition.

Officers of the R. O. T. C. camp are sparing no effort to prepare the cadets for their week of target practice at the Fort Barry range, as skill in the use of the rifle is held to be one of the most important subjects in the summer's training program. One to two hours a day are now being devoted to careful instruction in the care and use of the rifle, in correct firing positions and in sighting and aiming. Ingenious mechanical devices for teaching correct sighting without the use of target help to make this training speed and efficient. Gallery practice with miniature targets, at which the cadets use the army rifle modified for small caliber ammunition, follows the preliminary training, and it is expected that all will qualify to go to Fort Barry for range and record practice during the third and fourth weeks of the camp.

Instruction in rifle practice is directed by Major W. J. McCaughey, assisted by Capt. Charles O. Heath, both officers with distinguished records for proficiency with the rifle and pistol.

The first battalion will leave for Fort Barry on July 6.

California Scale Expert Engaged

To secure a natural enemy for the black scale and mealybugs which have for years been the farmers' worst enemy in California, E. W. Rust of Pasadena was the preliminary training, and it is expected that all will qualify to go to Fort Barry for range and record practice during the third and fourth weeks of the camp.

Rust is an entomologist of considerable experience and a graduate of Stanford University. He served as assistant to Professor Quayle at that institution making a special study of the scale insects affecting citrus fruits and their natural enemies. He has also occupied the position of entomologist in Peru and later received an appointment to the federal horticultural board at Washington.

445 IS JUNE BRIDE TOTAL IN ALAMEDA CO.

June brides to the number of 445, the greatest number for any June in the memory of "Cupid" Stewart Ginnell, the marriage license clerk, signed the great register during the month. The last couple to be married were Charles E. Catoir of Reno, and Ann Cummings of Sacramento, who were married at midnight last night, at the home of Ginnell by Judge Mortimer Smith.

Not all the brides were young and giddy. Early Monday the license bureau was visited by four couples who gave their ages as over 49. The oldest couple to secure a license during the month were Horatio D. Lincoln, 79, and Eva Rodgers, 66, both residents of Oakland.

10-YEAR-OLD BOY FIGHTS FLAMES

Ten-year-old Harold Bloom of 1515 Ellis street showed a spark of real heroism when he saved a two-story frame apartment house at 1823 Ellis street from destruction by fire yesterday evening. The lad discovered the fire and exhausted his energies before he gave up and ran to a fire box. Kindled by brush and dry grass in a lot adjoining the apartment house, flames leaped high as Harold started to battle the blaze. He grabbed a cunny sack, soaked it with water and applied it vigorously to the fire. When the greatest danger of the blaze was eliminated he called the fire department.

Just Once! Try Dodson's Liver Tone! Take No Calomel! Listen To Me!

If bilious, constipated, headachy or sick, I guarantee relief without taking dangerous calomel which sickens and salivates.

Stop using calomel! It makes you sick. Don't lose a day's work. If you feel lousy, sluggish, bilious or constipated, listen to me! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful tonight, and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep the entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless, doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Advertisement.

WINS WAR MEDALS AND A BRIDE

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS

PRESIDIO FAVORITE TO RETURN

Three distinguished service medals a cross de guerre and a bride, the daughter of an English naval captain, are the prizes that First Lieutenant Ralph A. O'Neill, U. S. Air Service, has brought back from the war. O'Neill was among the most successful of American air pilots and brought down many Hun planes. He is making his home in San Francisco, where he is connected with the Hercules Powder Company.

O'Neill went to France February 1, 1918, after training since July, 1917, when he enlisted at his home, Nogales, Ariz. In May, 1918, he was placed in the first pursuit group in the Toul sector and many times led a patrol against flocks of German planes. On July 1, he brought down two and on July 24 three enemy machines.

His bride was Miss Eileen Wilson, daughter of the late Captain Charles Wilson of the royal British navy.

FORMER COMMANDANT AT PRESIDIO DEAD

Brigadier General Jacob Beckman Rawles, U. S. A., retired, former commandant at the Presidio and one of the last two surviving members of the West Point class of 1861, died yesterday at his home in San Francisco, aged 79. He served throughout the four years of the war of the rebellion as a first lieutenant in the northern army. He was retired in 1903. General Rawles leaves a widow, Phoebe A., and two sons, William C. and Charles, and a daughter, Elizabeth B. He will be buried tomorrow with full military ceremonies in the national cemetery at the Presidio.

SHIP BROKER STARTED WORK AS OFFICE BOY

George T. Page of the ship brokers' firm of Page Brothers, will be buried today from the home of his sister, Mrs. John W. Mailhard, 2461 Gough street, San Francisco.

Page died Monday at the Stanford Court apartments. He was born in Valparaiso, Chile and came to San Francisco in 1880. He began work as an office boy for Henry Lund & Co. and later was employed by Balfour, Guthrie & Co. until joining with his brothers, Arthur and William D. Page, in the ship brokerage business. He was also vice president of the Cotati Company and managed this firm's 450-acre ranch near Santa Rosa.

COLONEL KENNEDY TO RETURN TO PRESIDIO

Return to the army, general hospital of Colonel James M. Kennedy, U. S. A. medical corps, who commanded the hospital during the fire of 1906, is announced. Colonel Kennedy's rescue work during the fire won him much attention. He served as chief surgeon of the army base hospital at Hoboken, N. J., during the war.

RESIGNS FROM BOARD OF WORKS AFTER EIGHT YEARS

To accept an offer of partnership in a large contracting firm, Adolph Judell has tendered his resignation as a member of the board of works in San Francisco after eight years' service. Among those under consideration as his successor are Leonard L. J. Bookkeeper for the board of works, Mayor D. I. McCall, superintendent of the street repair department, and James J. NEW STEAMERS TO SEEK NEW TRADE

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company expects to get a share of the twenty combination passenger and freight steamers being built by the Shipping Board, according to John H. Rosseter, who is head of the Pacific Mail and also director of operations for the Shipping Board.

The United States must reach out in three directions, Rosseter said, from the Atlantic coast and Gulf ports to the east coast of South America from the same ports to the west coast, and from Pacific ports to the Orient.

"The best is not any too good for the Pacific trade," he declared. "We must reach out for more of it with its undeveloped possibilities. The sooner the better."

CONFEDERATE CURRENCY Duples Doughbo

BOSTON, Mass., July 2.—The famous after-the-Civil War swindle of passing worthless Confederate notes has just been worked in this city on a hero returning from the world war. Two $100 Confederate notes were passed together making a very impressive-looking bill. The bill was tendered the soldier to be changed. He accommodately gave $100 in United States notes in exchange. Upon finding that he had been swindled the man went to army headquarters and plainclothes detectives were put on the trail of the swindlers.

LEMUEL QUIGG DIES

NEW YORK, July 2.—Lemuel Eli Quigg, widely known Republican politician and attorney, died at his home, 435 Westend avenue last night of Bright's disease, it was learned today. His wife and family were at the bedside when death came. Mr. Quigg was in his 57th year.

WOMEN EVERYWHERE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as the Greatest Remedy for Woman's Ills.

New Haven, Conn.—"For two years I suffered with a female weakness, pains in my back and painful periods, and I was so weak and tired that I was not able to do my work. A friend told me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it gave me great relief. My pains left me and I am now able to do my work and feel fine. You can publish my testimonial and if your Vegetable Compound does others as much good as it has me I will be very much pleased."—Mrs. CHARLES E. MORGAN, 37 Sea Street, New Haven, Conn.

The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains the curative, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act directly on the female organism.

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in most cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of 40 years' experience is at your service.

Mrs. Cooper, Age 72, Says She Never Felt Better in Her Life
—Tulae Ends Twenty-five Years' Trouble.

"The past winter was the first one I have gone through in fifteen years without having La Grippe, and I attribute it to the way Tulae built me up," was the remarkable statement made by Mrs. T. A. Cooper of 1147 Irving street, Los Angeles, in an interview, recently.

Mrs. Cooper, who is well known in the literary field, has been writing for some of the magazines for years. She also writes "Movie" stories and is at the present time writing a special story for one of our most popular screen actresses.

When asked if she was willing to have her statement regarding Tulae published, Mrs. Cooper said: "Yes, indeed, and you may tell them that which became Tulae the medicine I only weighed ninety-eight pounds, but that I now weigh one hundred and twenty-six pounds and feel like a new woman."

For twenty-five years I have had trouble in my head. Ten years ago the trouble reached my stomach and made me most miserable. I got so I could not eat, all wisdom leaving all up and suffering for hours. The gas would press on my heart and bring on such terrible pain of indigestion that I would almost faint. I was so nervous the least noise would startle me and make me tremble like a leaf. I tried many different kinds of medicines but gradually got worse until I reached the point where I could not get around at all.

I was almost a confirmed invalid for a long time and not until last fall, when I got Tulae, was I able to find anything to help me. Used since from the time I began taking Tulae I commenced to improve. Of course, when I found it was helping me I kept on taking it until now I can eat and drink just anything I want. The gas has left my stomach entirely and my nerves are as good as ever, and while I am now seventy-two years of age I don't believe I ever felt stronger and better.

The only medicine I keep in my house now is Tulae and the Laxative Tablets that come with it. Consider it the finest treatment for stomach trouble and run-down condition there is and I will be glad to tell anyone who cares to call me up what it has done for me and what I believe it will do for them."

Tulae is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Drug Long Company stores.—Advertisement.

Del Monte to Attract Society Over Fourth

Del Monte is to assume its usual gay and festive spirit on the Fourth of July when hundreds will motor to Monterey county over the holidays. This year one of the largest crowds is anticipated by the management of the hotel, so many are the outdoor recreation features as attractions.

A polo tournament with some of the best known players in the state, augmented by Walter Dillingham and Harold Castle of Honolulu, will be an additional attraction Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The golf tournament for men and women will be the most important event on the palm grill and at Del Monte lodge at Pebble beach.

Many prominent persons from all sections of the coast and the east have made reservations at the hotel, Del Monte. There will be one continual round of dinner dances in the palm grill and at Del Monte lodge at Pebble beach.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Howard of Piedmont spent the week-end at Del Monte. Mr. Howard is an expert trap shooter and won one of the beautiful trophies in the tournament which was staged on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Driscoll and their two small boys spent the week-end at Del Monte visiting with old acquaintances. It was the first time here of the season. Mr. Driscoll recently returned from France, where he was in active service as an officer in the army.

The middle of next month has been decided upon for the marriage of Miss Ethel Davis and Harrison Arnold of this city, the ceremony to be witnessed by the immediate family and read by Rev. E. R. Dille, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church in Alameda. The only attendants upon the bride are to be the Misses Dorothy and Helen Winslow, who will be the flower girls. REDWOODS TO BE SET TO MUSIC

California's redwoods will be set to words and music this year in an entertainment that will be a striking feature of the autumn program of the Semper Vivens club, which has as its slogan: "Save the Redwoods."

Final plans will be made at the annual meeting of the club July 13 in the California Redwood park. As the accommodations at the inn are limited, the club officers urge the members to get in their reservations at once. Those who do not hustle must sleep in hollow trees and tents and must bring their own blankets.

The forest play, "The Spirit of the Sequoia," will be produced August 22 and 23 in the Redwood park. It is a pastoral, with original music, the book by Don V. Richards, the music by Prof. Thomas Vincent Cator, and will be produced then for the first time. Dozens of pretty girls have volunteered their services.

Announcements of the club's plans are being sent out by Andrew P. Hill, president, and Alex. P. Murgotten, secretary.

PHYSICAL DRILL DEVELOPS CADETS

Under the instruction of Captain Carleton L. Brodus the 22 O. T. C. cadets at the Presidio are learning the most efficient methods of developing bodily vigor by systems of physical training. Captain Brodus has had five years' army experience as a director of physical education, and before entering the army was for years a successful trainer and director of individual athletic and gymnastic teams.

For a half hour each morning five hundred assembled cadets perform in unison the exercises which are calculated to straighten sloping shoulders, loosen kinks in joints and muscles and insure easy and vigorous control of the body. The officers as well as the cadets find these exercises a stimulating prelude to the work of the day.

The camp commander aims to send home each cadet a better, stronger and more vigorous young man than he was when he came to the Presidio. By active outdoor work and by daily physical drills, lungs will be expanded, shoulders and backs straightened, legs and arms strengthened, and muscular vigor substituted for laziness.

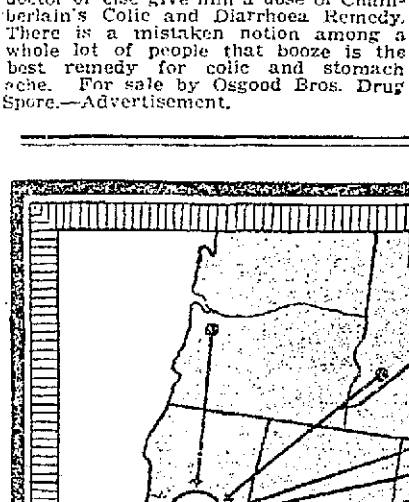

Important part of the program physical development is the daily afternoon half hour of games. The

Farmers Urged to Watch for Army Worm

Farmers of the state are urged to keep a strict watch for the army worm and to report its discovery immediately. In a circular sent out by the office of the State Commission of Horticulture.

The army worm is a variety of cutworm that has appeared in enormous numbers in Texas and has started to move through New Mexico and Arizona. A campaign is now on in Texas against these worms which is partially stopping their spread.

As soon as cases are reported in California efforts will be made to stop their further inroads on local farms.

REVELATIONS of a WIFE

by ADELE GARRISON.

Katie's comment, "He look joost awful," was certainly justified. This was my mental comment as I surveyed the man at the door. He hadn't been shaved for several days, his clothing was of the most nondescript character, and his hair was a tangled mass of gray wisps, over which an old hat was jammed down. There were deep lines on his face, too, which to a casual glance told of suffering. But I had learned many curious things during the never-to-be-forgotten expedition with Lillian and Lillian's friends, and I had seen Harry Underwood and Grace Draper. I remembered so distinctly the cosmetic tricks Lillian had used in transforming us into middle-aged Latin-American women that I recognized at once the marks of their use upon the face of the man before me.

The man was an imposter, I said to myself with a little shiver of disgust, one of the professional mendicants who made it so hard for really deserving peddlers to get a hearing. As I looked more closely at him I saw that his hair, too, was false, a wig covering his entire head. He might be any age under his disguises. Probably he was a strong young man who ought to be doing a man's work in the world.

"Pleze, kind lady, looka da tings," his voice was a whine, his accents plainly intended to be Italian. But I had heard too many Italian voices in my school days ever to mistake a man's tones for the musical Latin accents. I had no clue to his nationality. But that he was not Italian I was certain.

WHAT MADGE SAW.

I was turning away in disgust when I happened to catch sight of the staff in the small basket he uncovered and held out before me. It was the usual collection of notions, pencils, thumbtacks, pins, things useful and things which never had a use.

But among them I saw three small metal pencil cases, with tops which could be removed and then screwed on again. The remembrance of my well-known honest quest for something suitable in which to hide the secret paper my father had sent to Lillian made me turn again toward him. I was about to pick up one of the pencil cases when a sudden intuition led my hand toward the thumbtacks instead.

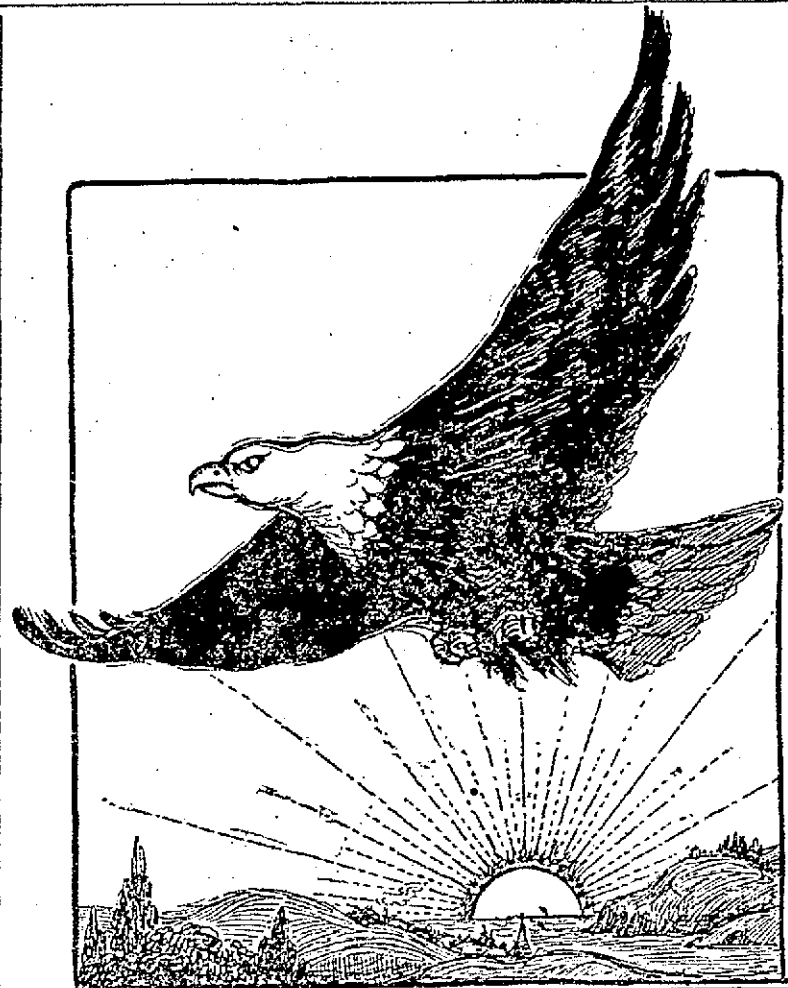

"How much are these?" I asked.

"Ten-a cent apiece," the man replied faintly.

I had a sense of something hauntingly familiar in the voice. And then my eyes fell upon the hand holding out the things. It was gloved! A feeling of dumb terror clutched me as I caught sight of the incongruous glove upon the hand of the unkempt, disreputable peddler who stood at my kitchen door holding out his wares for my inspection. There was no reason that could be explained for my fear. But at the sight of the glove a suspicion so wild, so fantastic that no reason rejected it scornfully, seized upon me.

Instinct, my sub-conscious self, call it what you will, warned me to flee. Reason, common sense, sanity, laughed at my silly fear of a professional mendicant who had clumsily disguised himself with a gray wig and cosmetics to make him appear old and suffering. Besides, in his basket the pencil cases which had caught my eye lay still unpurchased. My need of one of them in which to hide the precious paper committed to my care by my father was urgent. I steeled myself to an affection of carelessness.

The humble homes that wait at the close of the day, the humble lives and the simple loves, the small, brown joys and the common freedoms—THAT THESE HAVE BEEN SAUED WE THANK THEE GOD!

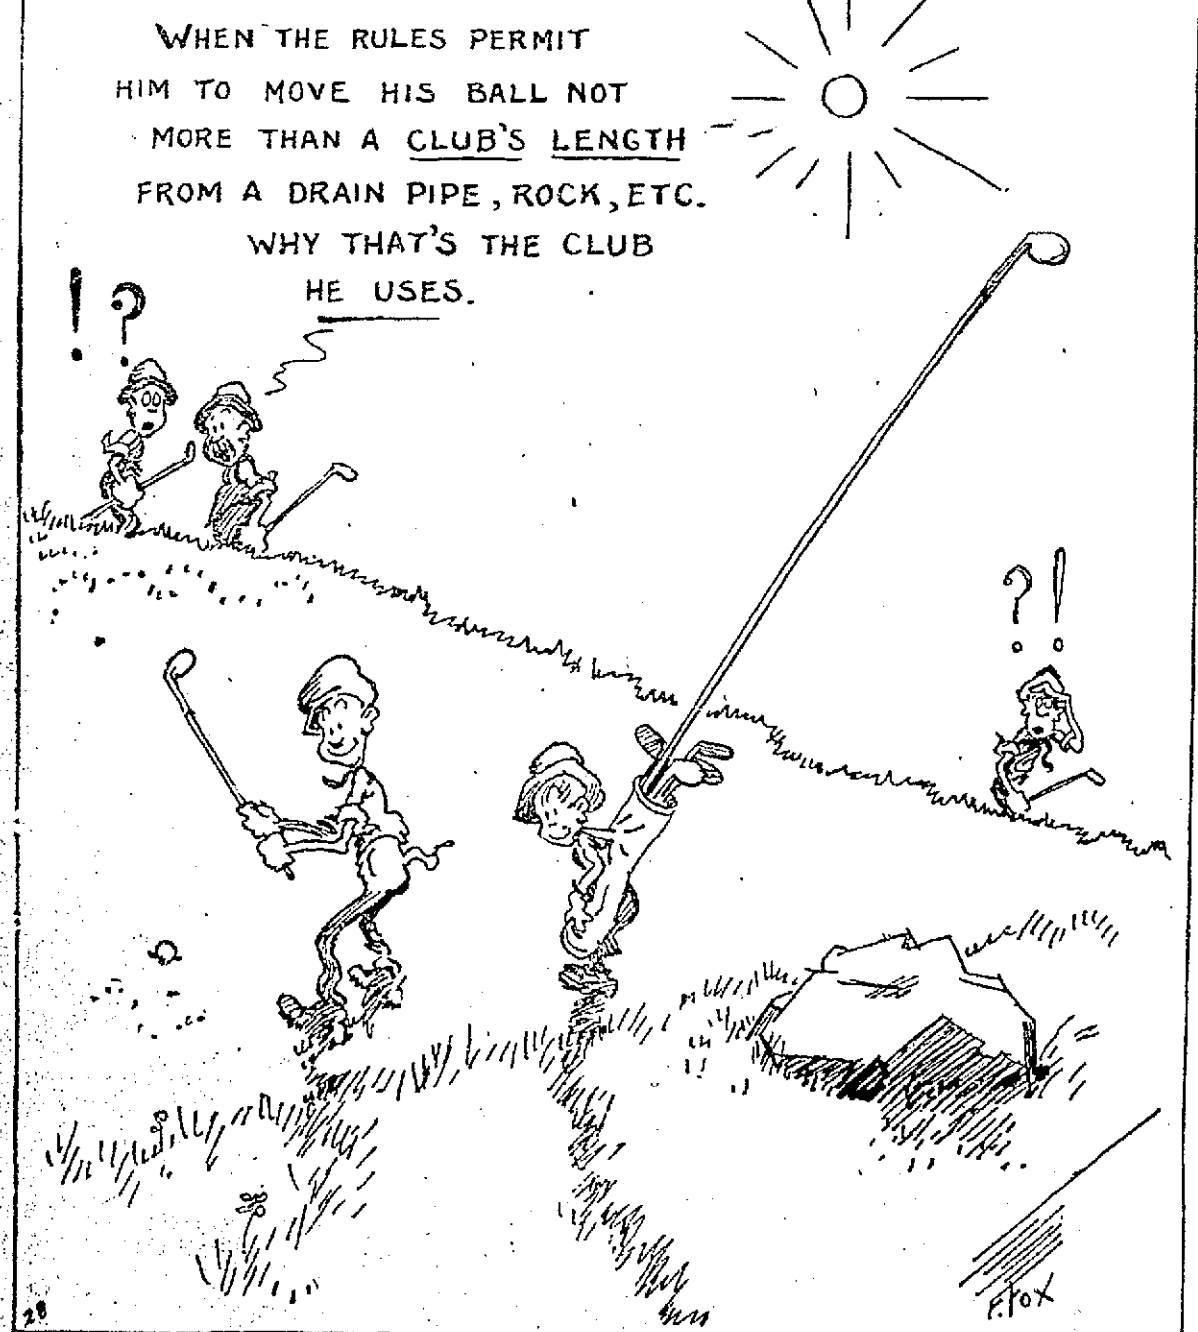

By ELSIE ROBINSON.

Good evening, Americans—Do you remember the "greased pig" races? And the swimming matches down by the wharf? And the baseball game in the afternoon? An the PARADE in the morning when everybody turned out with the family buggy trimmed up with roses and smilax and geraniums—the Richest Man leading off in that wonderful phaeton that was the pride of the town, and the "horribles" bringing up the rear amidst shouts of joy? Remember the "house company" matches—an how the West End Fire Company beat the Bottle Hill Boys? Or at any rate, they did up in Benicia in those old wonderful Fourth of July, and in Vallejo and Suisun and Woodland and Rio Vista. And if they didn't do it that way down here in Oakland—well, all I know is that you've missed the best part of life. Remember how you bought your crackers days and days ahead of time—and kept pecking at them every little while and only setting off a few? How you were up by daylight and how strange and foreign the world seemed in that dim light with the smell of the damp earth in the air? You had a new hat if you were a little girl. Mine was of white "mull" with buttercups and forget-me-nots and mother sat up all night to trim it. I'm never going to forget that hat as long as I live. And I'm never going to forget those Fourth of July, days of glory they were—every hour brimming with joy, until at last the last bit of punk burned out and the last rocket faded in the fireworks celebration. Besides, in his basket the pencil cases which had caught my eye lay still unpurchased. My need of one of them in which to hide the precious paper committed to my care by my father was urgent. I steeled myself to an affection of carelessness.

GARY'S BEDTIME STORY

(By Howard R. Garis.)

"Are you going to be very busy today, Uncle Wiggly?" asked the muskrat lady, housekeeper of the bunny rabbit gentleman one morning, as he started out of his hollow stump bungalow.

"Not so busy but what I can get more cherries if you want to make a pie," answered Mr. Longears, with a quivering twinkle of his pink nose.

"Oh, no, thank you! It isn't cherries this time," laughed Nurse Jane. "I have enough left from yesterday, when Baby Bunny threw the hard cherry stones at the last business. But what I wanted today was for you to go to Uncle Butters' farm again and get me some corn, beans, potatoes and other vegetables."

"I'll soon," cried Uncle Wiggly. "Just as soon as I can get a little pepper on the hologna sausage tires of my auto, I'll go get you corn and beans and everything."

"Then we'll have succotash for dinner," spoke Nurse Jane. Fuzzy Wuzzie.

It did not take Uncle Wiggly long to put on his tall silk hat, take his white and blue striped rheumatism crutch down off the clock shelf and then he was ready to start in his auto for the farm of the nice goat gentleman, Uncle Butters. The goat had that name not because he had the bad old lady fox tried to catch Nannie or Billie Wagtail, the goat called him that, but because he was an alligator tried to do something to that goat gentleman could butter with his horns. That's why he had the name Butters.

"Oh, ho! So you want some vegetables, do you?" asked Uncle Butters as Mr. Longears drove up to the farm. "Some corn, beans, potatoes and the like of that," answered Uncle Wiggly.

"All right, hop along with me and we'll go over the farm and you may see what you want," offered Uncle Butters.

"That's very kind of you," said Uncle Wiggly. "Many things were growing on the goat gentleman's farm and Uncle Wiggly saw carrots and lettuce and onions—no, wait—minute."

Wrong, Uncle Wiggly couldn't see the onions but he knew they were there because they had such a queer perfume. I don't like it myself but some folks do.

"Did Nurse Jane tell you to bring any egg plants?" asked Uncle Butters of the rabbit gentleman.

"Egg plants?" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly. "Why, no. We get all our eggs of Mrs. Chuck-Chuck, the hen lady. I don't know egg plants. I thought the chickadees made them."

"So they do," said Uncle Butters with a laugh. "But the egg plants mean grow in my vegetable garden. They are something like a tomato, only not so juicy as the tomato, only not so juicy as the tomato."

"I'll give you some for Nurse Jane," he said. "Of course it was very impolite, as you know. But the Skeezicks opened his mouth wide that he couldn't get it shut again, and he had to run off with it open that way, just as if he were shouting 'O! O! O!' And he had to go to the dentist to get his jaws closed again. But by that time Mr. Longears was far away."

So the egg plant saved the bunny's nose, and he like the purple vegetables very much when Nurse Jane cooked them.

Jimmy-Old-Boy!

A Letter-Play by Richard Wightman

To J. O. B.

Jimmy-Old-Boy, I need help badly and appeal to you as a first resort, you being the best friend I've ever had. If one can't rely on one's friends what can one rely on in times of deep trouble? So I appeal to you.

In the first place I am in debt. I owe the garage man $2 for an inner patch for which he paid 20 cents and he is pressing me for payment. He is pressing me harder than he pressed the patch, for the thing still leaks.

Then there is a fellow coming here tomorrow from Boston to sell me some stock in some New England industrial enterprise which has a fine board of directors, but is badly in need of funds for development. He says it's a fine thing and I can't dispute it, but I don't want to buy the stock. I've bought some once or twice.

I want my lawn mowed. It's one of those big lawns with all kinds of shrubs and sundials and things that make you keep backing and filling, and I don't like to mow it myself. I just love to sit on the porch and watch someone else do it, but labor of that sort is scarce in Homeland now—in fact, all sorts of labor are scarce and always have been. Scarce and high. The people here are all wealthy in their own right, some of them having motorcycles and as much as $18 in the bank. I have a new lawn mower with ball bearings, but they don't seem to have any bearings on getting the hay in, and it's nearly hay now—mostly dandelions.

Finally, I want to be married off to some fine, stately young woman with money and a loving disposition who will put up with my faults uncomplainingly. I put an ad in the Deep River Era and got one answer. She said she was sorry but was married last week and perfectly happy as she was.

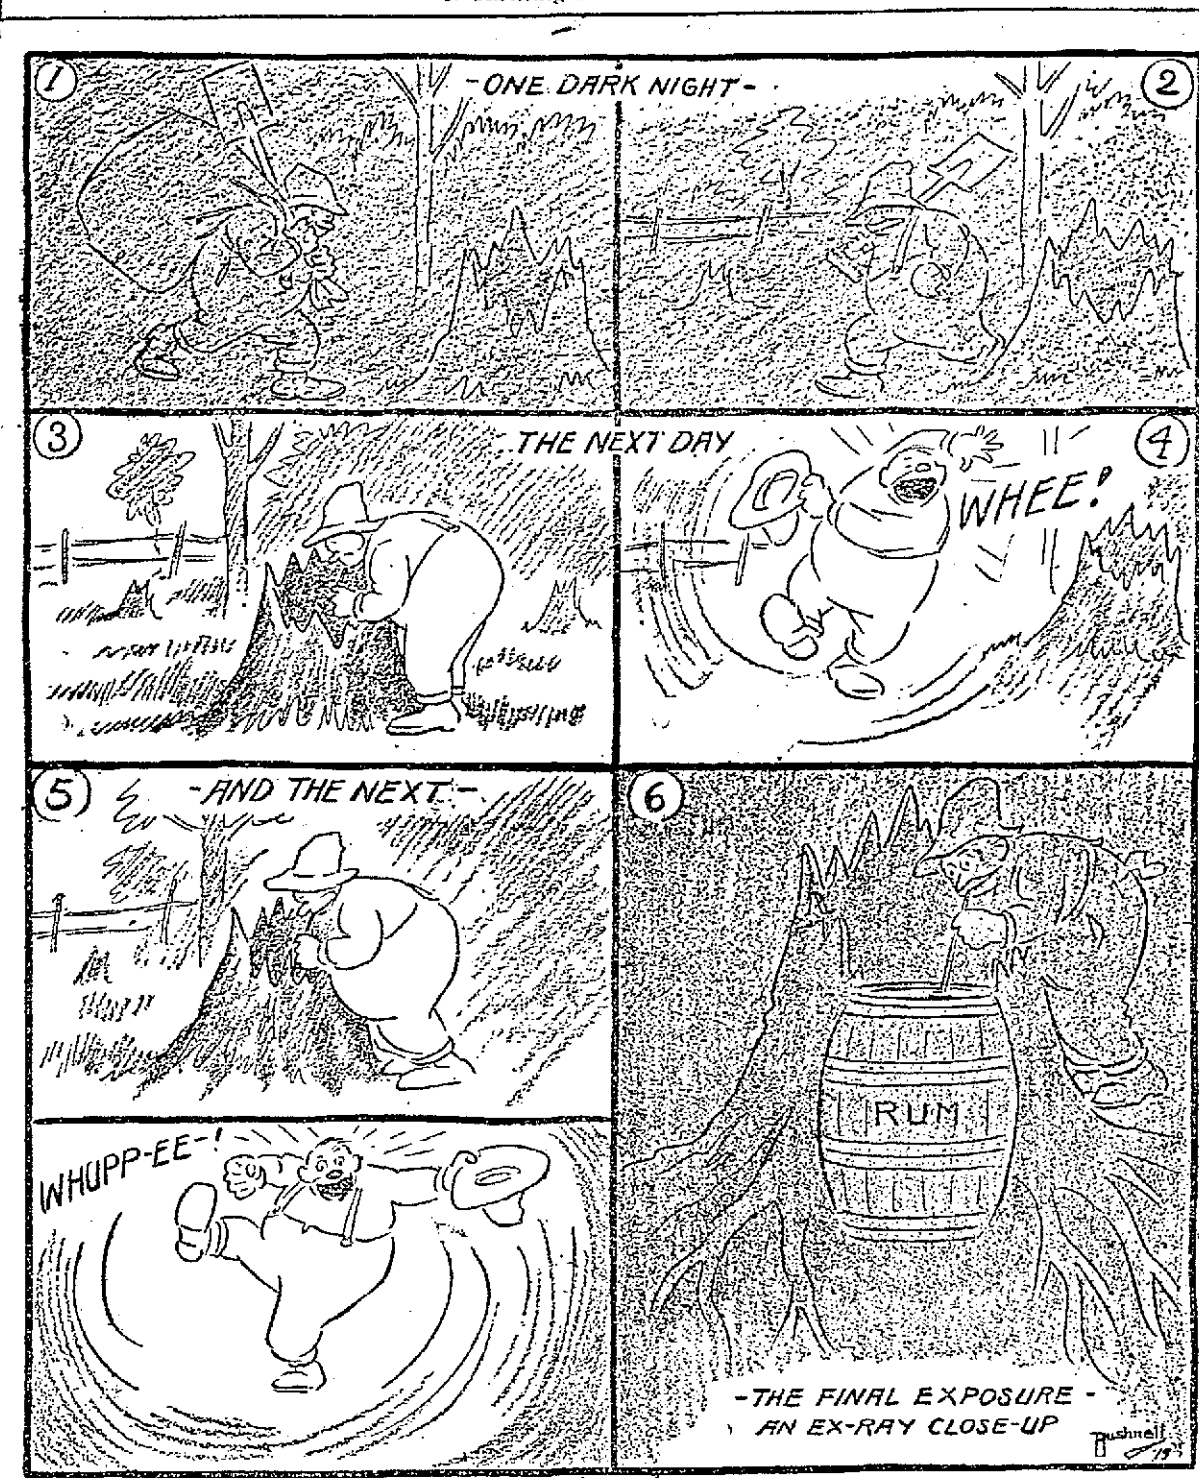

So you see, Jim, I need help in the worst way. Get Jane to throw some things in your bag, and hop on a train!

AFTER STORMS. What a wonderful world it is when the rain has passed away And the blue comes back to the sky once more and the sunshine fills the day.

How fresh and bright are the friend-ly trees that yesterday dripped their tears When the gloom departs and the sun comes out, how splendid the world appears! But oh, how sweet, is the thrill of joy that comes to the troubled heart.

When the sun of hope shines high once more and the clouds of fear depart.

When the Lord has answered his anguished prayers and his loved one smiles again, How sweet the thrill of the peace that comes to banish the hurt and pain.

Writes about FOLKS AND THINGS

What strange things they are, the letters that come fluttering in through the mail. All so much alike on the outside, and all so very different on the inside.

But there's one queer thing about them—if you ever get many letters you must have noticed it. I am struck with it again and again.

If I get two or three letters on Monday morning, each of them from a girl who is unhappy at home, I will have twenty or thirty such letters from all over the country, from all kinds of girls, rich and poor, clever and stupid, foreign born and plain American. And every one of them will tell almost exactly the same story.

A careless mother, a disagreeable, fault-finding father, elder sisters who aren't kind, and brothers who are greedy and selfish.

The next week the tide changes, and the unhappy wives begin to write. Then the unfortunate husbands start in, and so it goes.

A week ago I had eleven letters from step-mothers who could not get along with their step-children. And with that batch of letters came six from elder sisters, who were trying to bring up children smaller than themselves and having trouble to do it.

Of these six letters, one came from Cleveland, two from New York, one from Chicago, one from a town in Indiana, one from New England and one from Oakland.

Account for it, I never think of even trying to do that. I just noticed it.

This is the week of the morbid who study themselves—and want others to study them.

LIFE AND BOOKS.

Here is a typical letter of this kind: Dear Winifred: I am a woman of 28 years. What I would like to know is how I can develop the power of love, and cheerful and happy thoughts.

I have one bad thought which robs me of my happiness, and I know it is due to the lack of happy childhood. Therefore I made it a habit to look at things on the dark side. I know the difference and would like very much to get out of it.

I had a public school education and was not able to obtain any more, as I was brought up by an uncle who did not understand the value of schooling for girls, and now I stand to suffer for it.

I think if I would read the right kind of books it would be a great help to me. I never read much, in fact, very little.

I came across a few words which said, "The function of education is to know how to learn to live," and this is what I don't know.

I passed a miserable childhood, without any love or attention; so now that I am a mother of two children I try to bring them up better. But I feel that I lack something of great value. I was brought up without any principles and no strong faith. I know I have a great deal to do better, so as to get out of my present state. I am in a habit of thinking of failure, disease, etc., but if I had a few things of importance to think about I am sure I can stop it.

Kindly give me a list of books which will be suitable for me to read. Thanking you in advance and hoping to get an early reply, I am, sincerely yours, F. A.

No, my dear, your unhappiness may have started in an unhappy childhood, but that isn't the cause of it now. You are unhappy now for just one plain, simple reason: You think too much about yourself.

There's nothing mysterious or occult or prenat about it at all. There you are, with a good husband and nice children, plenty to do, and yet you are unhappy. How can you get time to sit around and wonder about yourself?

Books—yes. Books will help you to some extent. Gen. Annie Payson Call's "Power Through Repose"—and see what that will do for you, and then run to the bookstore or over to the library and get a copy of "David Copperfield." Read "David Copperfield" from the beginning to the end. Weep with David, laugh with Peggy, be sorry for Little Emili, get acquainted with Wilkins Micawber.

Forget yourself, open the door of that book just as you would open the door of a room. Step in it and forget everything else while you're reading it.

THROW OFF THE BLUES. You're morbid and blue, and self-centered—shake off yourself even when you're reading. And you must not read if you forget there's anything on earth that is named "you."

When you feel those morbid thoughts to be over you, get up and out on a new dress for the little girl, trim a hat for her or make a nice cake for the boy. Find some jolly children's books to read aloud to them.

Disinfect? Why should you bother thinking about sickness and epidemics? They're none of your business! Mind your own affairs, and mind them with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your body.

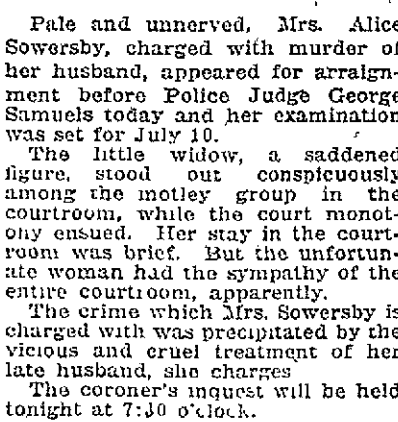

That's the way to throw off the blues.

Tartar Sauce. 1 cupful of mayonnaise dressing. 1 tablespoonful of chopped olives. 1 tablespoonful of chopped pickles. Mix together well and serve with shrimps, lobster or other shellfish.

Thousand Island Dressing. 2-3 cupful of mayonnaise dressing. 2 teaspoonfuls of chopped green peppers. 2 teaspoonfuls of pimentos. 2 teaspoonfuls of chives. 1/2 teaspoonful of paprika. 1/2 teaspoonful of lemon juice. 1 tablespoonful of tomato catsup. 1 tablespoonful of tarragon vinegar. 3 tablespoonfuls of chili sauce. The humble homes that wait at the close of the day, the humble lives and the simple loves, the small, brown joys and the common freedoms—THAT THESE HAVE BEEN SAUED WE THANK THEE GOD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON.

Good evening, Americans—

Do you remember the "treasured pig" races? And the swimming matches down by the wharf? And the baseball game in the afternoon? And the PARADE in the morning when everybody turned out with the family buggy trimmed up with roses and smiles and geraniums—the Richest Man leading off in that wonderful phaeton that was the pride of the town, and the "horribles" bringing up the rear amidst shouts of joy?

Remember the "house company" matches—ah, how the West End Fire Company beat the Dottle Hill Boys? Or at any rate, they did up in Benicia in those old, wonderful Fourth of July, and in Vallejo and Suisun and Woodland and Rio Vista. And if they didn't do it that way down here in Oakland—well, all I know is that you've missed the best part of life. Remember how you bought your crackers days and days ahead of time—and kept pecking at them every little while and only setting off a few? How you were up by daylight and how strange and foreign the world seemed in that dim light with the smell of the damp earth in the air? You had a new hat if you were a little girl. Mine was of white "mull" with buttercups and forget-me-nots and mother sat up all night to trim it. I'm never going to forget that hat as long as I live. And I'm never going to forget those Fourth of July days of glory they were—very hour brimming with joy, until at last the last bit of punk burned out and the last rocket faded in the fireworks celebration down at the baseball grounds. How sleepy you were as you stumbled home hanging on to Dad's hand. How good the quiet home seemed—how peaceful and safe and dear!

I'm not sure that I realized the peace and safety of it all then as I do now—I was too filled up with the blazing glory. But as the years have gone along—and I've had to do my stumbling through the dark without a hand to hold to—I've come to know And so at last we come to another Fourth—you and I. A Fourth such as we have never known. We've gone through the splendor of a nation's rising glory. We've passed through the horror of a nation's deadly fear. We've tasted wonder and delight, awe and agony. One by one the great fires have flared and died away, until, at last, we've had enough.

So now, on this Fourth we're not longing for mimic wars. We're not celebrating our strength with the town band and "the horribles." We've had too many horrors. We're turning home—and thinking with deep, and wordless gratitude how good home is.

The blazing glory is over and the numbing fear. The great deeds have been done to shine through all the ages. We've lived in the vastness of Chaos and marched with the gods. And now we come back to the old things and to the taking toll. Out of it what has endured and what has been born? That which we thought was the best—that which we were in danger of forgetting—the KINGDOM OF LITTLE THINGS. The humble homes that wait at the close of the day, the humble lives and the simple loves, the small brown joys and the common freedoms—THAT THESE HAVE BEEN SAUED WE THANK THEE, GOD!

GARY'S BEDTIME STORY

(By Howard R. Caris.)

"Are you going to be very busy today, Uncle Wiggly?" asked the bunnymaster lady housekeeper of the bunnymaster lady housekeeper as he started out of his hollow stump bungalow.

"Not so busy but what I can get more cherries if you want to make a pie," answered Mr. Longears, with a quivering twinkle of his pink nose.

"Oh, no, thank you! I isn't cherries this time," laughed Nurse Jane. "I have enough left from yesterday, when Baby Bunty threw the hard cherry stones at the bad Misses. But what I wanted today was for you to go to Uncle Butters' farm again and get me some corn, beans, potatoes and other vegetables."

"I'll go," cried Uncle Wiggly quickly. "Just as soon as I can get a little pepper on the Bologna sausage fires of my auto, I'll go get you corn and beans and everything."

"Then we'll have succotash for dinner," spoke Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzys.

It did not take Uncle Wiggly long to put on his tall silk hat, take his rod, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch down off the clock shelf and then he was ready to start in his journey to the farm of the nice goat gentleman, Uncle Butters. The goat had that name not because he goat to butter his bread, but because, if he had old lady fox tried to catch Nannie or Billie Wagtail, the goat children, he'd say if the old lady fox, or a pig, tried to do anything like that, the goat gentleman could butt her with his horns. That's why he had the name.

"Oh, ho! So you want some vegetables," said Uncle Butters as Mr. Longears drove up to the door. "Some corn, beans, potatoes and the like of that," answered Uncle Wiggly.

"All right, hop along with me and we'll go over the farm and you may see whatever you want," offered Uncle Butters.

"That's very kind of you," said Uncle Wiggly.

Many things were growing on the goat gentleman's farm, and Uncle Wiggly saw carrots and lettuce and onions and what a minute, I'm wrong. Uncle Wiggly couldn't see the onions but he knew they were there because they had such a wonderful perfume. I don't like it myself but some folks do.

"Mr. Caris, Jane tell you to bring any egg plants?" asked Uncle Butters of the bunnymaster lady.

"Egg plants?" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly. "Why, no. We get all our eggs of Mrs. Chuck-Cluck, the hen lady. I didn't know she had egg plants. I thought the chickens made them."

"So they do," said Uncle Butters with a laugh. "But the egg plants mean grow in my vegetable garden. They are something like a squash, or a tomato, only not so juicy as the last. I'll give you some for Nurse Jane. She'll like them to eat with their meat and then fry them in butter. I'll tell them to get some for you, too. They are good for you."

It sounds good, agreed Uncle Wiggly, and then the goat gentleman showed him to one side of the garden where the egg plants were growing.

Uncle Wiggly saw some large purple things shaped like an egg, but much larger. And they grew on stalks. Uncle Butters cut off three or four egg plants and put them in the auto with the rest of the vegetables.

"I have a fine lot for Nurse Jane," said the rabbit gentleman. "I'll soon on his way back to the hollow stump bungalow, when, all of a sudden, he saw the bad old Skeezicks fence popped the bad old Skeezicks."

"Ah, Uncle Wiggly! I am glad to see you," cried the Skeezicks, making his claw ready to pull some sauce off Uncle Wiggly's ear.

"No matter! First I'll take some of the vegetables Uncle Butters gave you," cried the Skeez. "And next I'll see about your sauce. What have you?"

"I have beans, corn, potatoes, egg plants," began Uncle Wiggly.

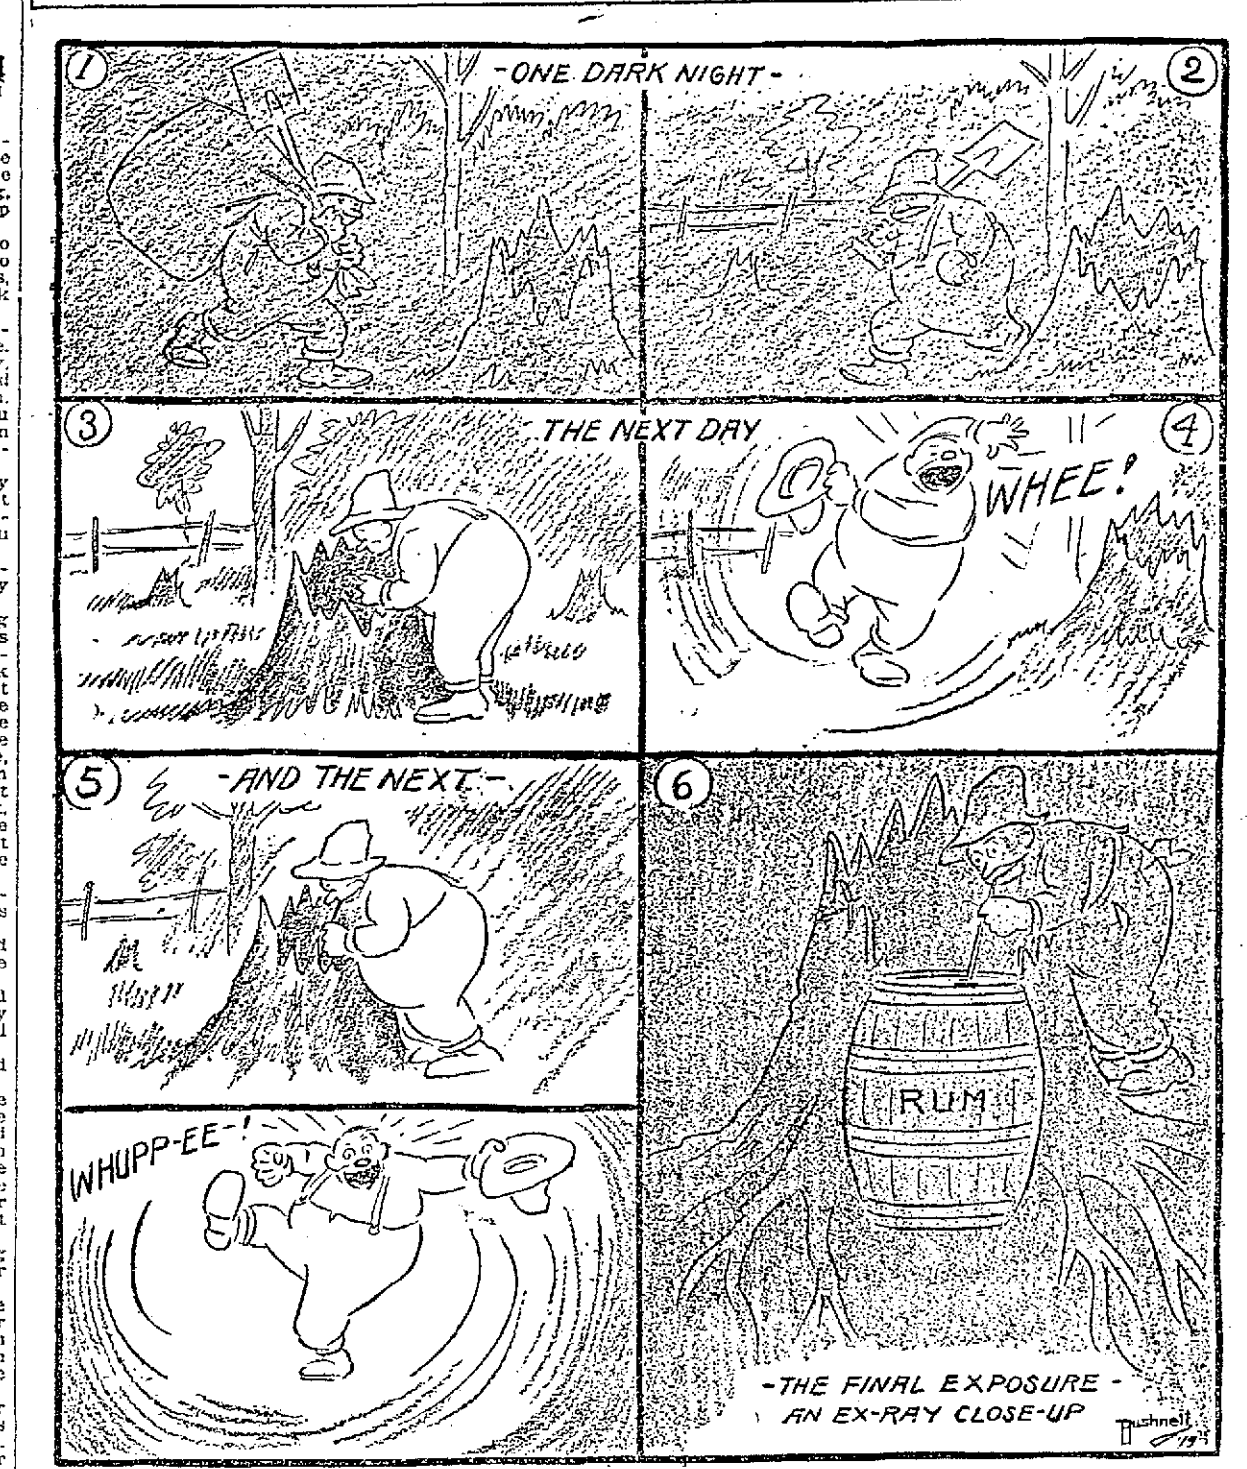

"Stop! That's enough! I'll take an egg plant," howled the Skeezicks. "I love to eat an egg plant, and I take it all in one bite. Let's see the egg plant!"

"I didn't say eggs," spoke Uncle Wiggly.

"I said egg plant," interrupted the Skeez, looking into the auto. And when he saw the great, big purple egg plant, he went on. "Well, those are the largest eggs I ever saw. And they're colored just like on Easter Sunday. Well, I never took such a big egg at one bite before, but I'm going to do it now!"

He took up an egg plant, opened his mouth to take it all in at one bite, but he couldn't. His mouth wasn't large enough. But the Skeezicks was proud and boastful.

"I must try harder and open my mouth wider," he said. "Of course it was very impolite as you know. But the Skeez opened his mouth wider and wider and wider, trying to take a whole egg plant in at one bite, and then, all of a sudden, he opened his mouth so wide that he couldn't get it shut again, and he had to run off with it open that way. Just as if he were shouting 'O! O! O!' And he had to go to the dentist to get his jaws closed again. But by that time Mr. Longears was far away."

So the egg plant saved the bunnymaster lady from the Skeezicks' claws, and he like the purple vegetables very much when Nurse Jane cooked them.

Winifred Black FOLKS AND THINGS

Writes about

What strange things they are, the letters that come fluttering in through the mail. All so much alike on the outside, and all so very different on the inside.

But there's one queer thing about them—if you ever get many letters you must have noticed it. I am struck with it again and again.

If I get two or three letters on Monday morning, each of them from a girl who is unhappy at home, I will have twenty or thirty such letters from all over the country, from all kinds of girls, rich and poor, clever and stupid, foreign born and plain American. And every one of them will tell almost exactly the same story.

A careless mother, a disagreeable, fault-finding father, elder sisters who aren't kind, and brothers who are greedy and selfish.

The next week the tide changes, and the unhappy wives begin to write. Then the unfortunate husbands start in, and so it goes.

A week ago I had eleven letters from step-mothers who could not get along with their stepchildren. And with that batch of letters came six from elder sisters, who were trying to bring up children smaller than themselves and having trouble to do it.

Of these six letters, one came from Cleveland, two from New York, one from Chicago, one from a town in Indiana, one from New England and one from Oakland.

Account for it I never think or even try to do that. I just noticed it.

This is the week of the morbid who study themselves—and want others to study them.

LIFE AND BOOKS.

Here is a typical letter of this kind: Dear Winifred:

I am a woman of 23 years. What I would like to know is how I can develop the power of love, and cheerful and happy thoughts.

I have one bad thought which runs me down, and I know it is due to the lack of happy childhood. Therefore I made it a habit to look at things on the dark side. I know the difference and would like very much to get out of it.

I had a public school education and was not able to obtain any more, as I was brought up by an aunt who did not understand the value of schooling for girls, and now I stand to suffer for it.

I think if I could read the right kind of books it would be a great help to me. I never read much, in fact, very little.

I came across a few words which said, "The function of education is to know how to learn and live," and this is what I don't know.

I passed a miserable childhood, without any love or attention; so now that I am a mother of two, I know it is due to the lack of happy childhood. But I feel that I lack something of great value. I was brought up without any principles and no strong faith. I know I have to do it, but I don't know so as to get out of my present stage. I am in a habit of thinking of failure, disease, etc., but if I have other things of importance to think about I am sure I can stop it.

Kindly give me a list of books which will be suitable for me to read.

Thanking you in advance and hoping to get an early reply, I am, sincerely yours, F. A.

No, my dear, your unhappiness may have started in an unhappy childhood, but that isn't the cause of it now. You are unhappy now for just one plain, simple reason:

You think too much about yourself—that's all.

There's nothing mysterious or occult or prenatally at it all. There you are, with a good husband and nice children, plenty to do, and plenty to do with. How can you get time to sit around and wonder about yourself?

Books—yes, books will help you to some extent.

See Anna Payson Call's "Power Through Repose"—and see what will do for you, and then run to the bookstore or over to the library and get a copy of "David Copperfield."

Read "David Copperfield" from the beginning to the end. Weep with David, laugh with Pegotty, be sorry for Little Emily, get acquainted with Trilby, and see what you think of William Micawber.

Forget yourself, open the door of that book just as you would open the door of a room. Step into it and forget everything else while you're reading it.

THROW OFF THE BLUES.

You're morbid and blue, and self-centered—shake off yourself even when you're reading. And when you're not doing, forget there's anything on earth that is named "you."

When you feel those morbid thoughts to be over you, get up and cut out a new dress for the little girl, trim it for her or make a nice cake for the boy. Find some jolly children's books to read aloud to them.

Disease? Why should you bother thinking about sickness and epidemics? They're none of your business! Mind your own affairs, and mind them with all your heart and mind, and all your soul and with all your body.

That's the way to throw off the blues.

1/2 cupful of chili sauce.

1 teaspoonful of salt.

1/2 teaspoonful of powdered sugar.

1 teaspoonful of mustard.

1/2 teaspoonful of vinegar.

1 tablespoonful of lemon juice.

Beat the egg yolk and add the seasonings. Then gradually add the oil until thick. Add the lemon juice and vinegar and finally the thick chili sauce. Keep on beating while mixing the various ingredients, and be sure they're all kept cold.

Tartar Sauce.

1 cupful of mayonnaise dressing.

1 tablespoonful of chopped olives.

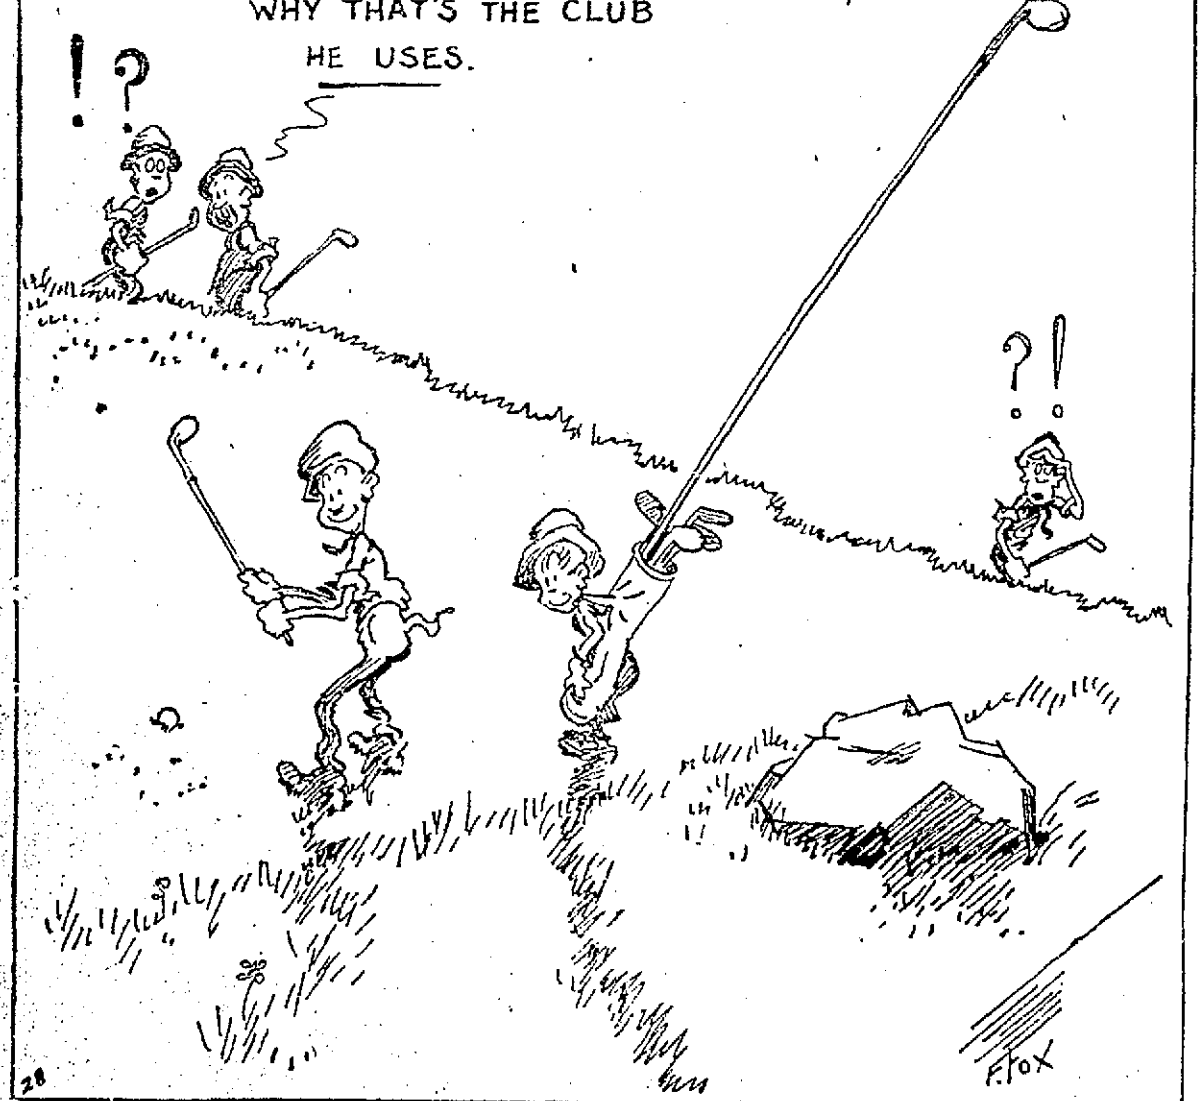

1 tablespoonful of chopped shrimps.

Mix together well and serve with shrimps, lobster or other shellfish.

Jimmy-Old-Boy!

A Letter-Play by Richard Wightman

Help Wanted

To J. O. B.

Jimmy-Old-Boy, I need help badly and appeal to you as a first resort, you being the best friend I've ever had. If one can't rely on one's friends what can one rely on in times of deep trouble? So I appeal to you.

In the first place I am in debt. I owe the garage man $2 for an inner patch for which he paid 20 cents and he is pressing me for payment. He is pressing me harder than he pressed the patch, for the thing still leaks.

Then there is a fellow coming here tomorrow from Boston to sell me some stock in some New England industrial enterprise which has a fine board of directors, but is badly in need of funds for development. He says it's a fine thing and I can't dispute it, but I don't want to buy the stock. I've bought some once or twice.

I want my lawn mowed. It's one of those big lawns with all kinds of shrubs and sundials and things that make you keep backing and filling, and I don't like to mow it myself. I just love to sit on the porch and watch someone else do it, but labor of that sort is scarce in Homeland now—in fact, all sorts of labor are scarce and always have been. Scarce and high. The people here are all wealthy in their own right, some of them having motorcycles and as much as $18 in the bank. I have a new lawn mower with ball bearings, but they don't seem to have any bearings on getting the hay in, and it's nearly hay now—mostly dandelions.

Finally, I want to be married off to some fine, stately young woman with money and a loving disposition who will put up with my faults uncomplainingly. I put an ad in the Deep River Era and got one answer. She said she was sorry but was married last week and perfectly happy as she was.

So you see, Jim, I need help in the worst way. Get Jane to throw some things in your bag, and hop on a train!

AFTER STORMS.

What a wonderful world it is when the rain has passed away and the blue comes back to the sky once more and the sunshine fills the day.

How fresh and bright are the friend, by trees that yesterday dripped their tears.

When the gloom departs and the sun comes out, how splendid the world appears!

But oh, how sweet, is the thrill of joy that comes to the troubled heart.

When the sun of hope shines high once more and the clouds of fear depart.

When the Lord has answered his anguished prayers and his loved one smiles again.

How sweet the thrill of the peace that comes to banish the hurt and pain.

Kitchen Economies

by IROBEL BRANDS

Frequently I get requests for recipes of some famous salad dressings, and as these are no doubt generally interesting, a number of them are given here.

The most flavorful salad dressings, naturally, are the ones which have the most varied ingredients. For while the salad itself should be limited to only two or at most three kinds of food, salad dressings may have half a dozen or more carefully selected ingredients.

These ingredients, especially for one salad may seem expensive, but if a variety is kept on hand it will last for a long time and not be so expensive in the end.

Thousand Island Dressing.

2-3 cupful of mayonnaise dressing.

2 teaspoonfuls of chopped green peppers.

2 teaspoonfuls of pimentos.

2 teaspoonfuls of chives.

1 tablespoonful of tomato catsup.

MEMORIES OF FRANCE DRIVE MAN TO DEATH

BERKELEY, July 2.—Happiness over the reconciliation with his divorced wife could not bring sunshine enough to light the dark clouds of suffering he had seen in France for Charles D. Wright, 25 years old, well known athlete of Southern California.

Wright's body lies today at the Berkeley morgue. He succumbed last evening at Roosevelt Hospital from the effects of poison swallowed yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. E. E. Clark, 1814 Napa avenue, where he and his former wife had been staying.

Ten days ago Wright received his discharge from the army after serving in the thick of action with the 1st Aero Squadron. Visions of comrades falling on the battlefield and of the sufferings of war were constantly before the returned soldier, according to Mrs. Wright.

Wright and his wife had been reconciled on the former's return from France last month and were planning to be remarried in the immediate future. They have one child, a four-year-old girl. Today Mrs. Wright is hysterical at the Clark home, refusing to be comforted by friends and relatives. She has been placed under the care of a physician.

The body of Wright will be shipped to Los Angeles, his former home, for interment. Wright had just returned to Berkeley from a visit to his mother in the south and had obtained employment at the California Ink Works prior to establishing his new home in this city.

Road Bonds Carry by 7 to 1 Vote Alameda Decisively For Highways

With thirteen country precincts to hear from, which are expected to vote almost unanimously for better roads, Alameda county registered better than 5 to 1 for the $40,000,000 highway bonds at yesterday's election. The state generally carried the bonds by a vote of almost 7 to 1, many of the country precincts voting unanimously for them. Cities voted for the bonds in approximately the same ratio as the country districts most directly affected, and the result of the election indicates that Californians are in favor of building more and still more and better highways.

The Alameda county vote as tabulated at noon was 19,502 for the bonds and 3,224 against them. The precincts not yet counted are sending their returns by express and will be tabulated late today.

Total vote so far tallied is 23,028. The missing precincts are from the southern end of the county. The vote so far tallied in the larger precincts gives Oakland 11,381 for and 2,224 against; Berkeley, 4,328 for and 634 against; Alameda, 4,080 for; against, 1,139 for, 26 against; Ocean View, 93 for, 10 against.

The returns from the state so far tabulated gave the bonds 114,325 to 10,772 against.

The election was unique in the fact that nowhere in the state was there anything in the nature of organized opposition. The light vote in some of the cities is explained by the confidence everywhere felt that the bonds would carry. But in the country districts there was no apathy, and the usually light summer vote was not in evidence.

So far bonds have been carried in every county.

NEW HIGHWAYS PLANNED.

The State Highway Commission estimates that $20,000,000 of the $40,000,000 bonds authorized will be required to complete the work planned heretofore, leaving one-half of the amount for extensions of the system of highways. HAYWARD, July 2.—Returns from Hayward's two precincts in the road election of yesterday showed that Hayward polled a vote of 9 to 1 in favor of the bonds.

LOCAL UNIONS INCLUDED IN JULY 4 MOVE

Fourteen unions about the bay will be out on strike beginning July 4 for five days as a part of the nationwide demonstration of labor bodies against the imprisonment of Thomas Mooney, convicted in the Preparedness Day bomb cases. Every state in the union will be affected by the strike, according to union leaders.

More than 140,000 workers being members of the various organizations that have voted the strike.

Three carpenters' unions in the bay cities, locals 482, 304 and 689, will go out as will Painters' Union No. 72, Structural Iron Workers' No. 31 and 78, the two glassworkers' unions, and the Oakland longshoremen.

The strike will not cover the entire local building trades council, according to Business Agent S. J. Donohue, a number of unions having turned down the proposed strike, over which there is a difference of opinion.

GOMPER'S POSITION UNIQUE.

An interesting phase of the situation, according to local union men, is that while Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is a violent opponent of the "Mooney Strike," he is technically on the strike himself.

Gompers, who is a member, has voted to strike. The women barbers of Seattle, only union of its kind in the world, has voted to strike.

The strike is designated as a "peaceful protest strike" and is set for July 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8. According to local union heads the cities that will be most affected are in the east and middle west. They include Butte, where the mine workers are to go out; Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Schenectady, N. Y.; Great Falls, Mont., and Chicago. A large number of employees have also voted the strike in Seattle. About the bay comparatively few unions have called the strike so far.

One million men will quit work. Selig Schulerberg of the International Workers' Defense League said today.

"A tally of the vote shows the best response to be likely in Detroit, Minneapolis, Chicago, Butte, Seattle, Tacoma, Great Falls, Mont., and Terre Haute, Ind., said Schulerberg. The biggest single craft ready to walk out is the United Mine Workers, with a heavy membership in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, the middle west and far west."

Carpenters in cities and towns all over the country, electricians, bricklayers, hod carriers, iron workers, iron molders, a few railway shopmen's organizations, electrical workers, painters, garment makers, packing house employees, bakers and confectioners and longshoremen are all on record for strikes.

"In San Francisco, plumbers, three carpenters' unions, painters, two iron workers' unions, the needle-craft trades, with the exception of the garment workers, and the longshoremen will strike. In Los Angeles, Oakland, Portland, Seattle and Tacoma, the demonstration will also be felt," said Schulerberg. He said the strikers will remain out as a protest against Mooney's conviction.

They will then return to work and if the new trial is not granted will walk out again Labor day, for five days. There is no general labor day for the strike, Schulerberg said, each union handling its own walkout.

Two Ships Caught in Ice Jam Near Nome

Nome roadway is full of floating ice again, according to wireless advices received here today and two steamships are imprisoned. Steamship Admiral Goodrich is sixty miles from Nome and the Cordova is fifteen miles. Neither is believed to be in any danger.

Ice in the roadway is unusual at this time of year. When the first vessels went north they encountered ice, but it soon drifted far into the Bering Sea toward Siberia. Some freak change in the wind is considered responsible for the present situation. It is impossible to land at Nome, Teller and Kotzebue Sound ports until a change of wind will send the flocks back where they belong, far into the Arctic.

Another Claim Entered for Amateur Title

By EDDIE MURPHY.

The winner of the series between the Shasta Limiteds and the C. L. Best Tractors is going to find it a tough job claiming the amateur title and getting away with it without a protest. Manuel Duran, manager of the Shasta Limiteds, says that his club must be considered, as it defeated the Shastas not so very long ago, and he expects to do likewise when they meet next Sunday at Lincoln Park, Alameda. Manuel also points out that his club defeated the San Jose Bears and the C. L. Best Tractors have not yet played them. But the latest manager to put in a claim for a fighting chance at the title is Frank Cohen of the Wright-Distons of San Francisco. Cohen thinks that he has an unbeatable ball club with Babe Pierotti doing the pitching, and he would like to get a series with the winner of the Tractor-Shasta once.

The Wright-Diston team traveled to Tracy last Sunday and defeated that team 1 to 0. It being the first defeat for the Tractors' outfit in ten games. Al Bonner, former Oak, was in the box for Tracy and held the San Franciscans to three hits, but Babe Pierotti went him a little better by allowing Tracy but one. Pierotti fanned twelve while Bonner fanned seven. The Wright-Diston team, one would think that it was that of the 1918 team. Nearly every player that Joe Vitt had in his Grays lineup in the midwinter league of that season is still in the team. Pierotti, who is a pitcher, and Bobby Yellow who is the Grays' battery. Less Hunn, Swan, Kelly, Decker and Jones are also players with the San Francisco club that played with the Grays.

RICHMOND ELKS HAVE A TIGHT TIME GETTING GAMES.

Otto Dietrich is afraid that he will not be able to keep his Richmond Elks in the field very long. He says that his boys have been showing too much class and are so over the top that all the other boys out of playing them. The Elks were forced to resign for the first time on Sunday, but Val Byrne, manager of the St. Domingues, has helped Otto to make it possible for his club to get out next Sunday. Byrne will bring his Saints to Richmond to play the Elks and they should make a good game of it. The Saints recently beat the Shastas to an eleven inning tie.

Dietrich went to Vallejo trying to arrange a series of games with the Mare Island Shipbuilders, but Manager Neely O'Hara of that club wrote back that the team is booked until the end of the month, so Otto will have to wait. Otto also wants to play the Oakland Raiders, but Manager Duran does not like the proposition offered for him to take his team to Richmond.

Cotton Mills Nine Adds Another Win

Bill Wagner, manager of the C. L. Best Tractors, is nursing a sore heart. He says he had an understanding with Otto Dietrich that the Elks would travel to San Leandro and play the same percentage will have to be that the Tractors were given when they went to Richmond. Ever since the Tractors lost the game at Richmond, Wagner has been trying to get the Elks out to his park, but Otto Dietrich came right out and said he would not take his Elks to San Leandro, but if the Tractors want to play his club they can go to Richmond and do it for the same guarantee they got the last time. Bill Wagner says the day is coming when he will get even.
